DISPATCH FROM SECRETARY STANTON.

Arrival of Admiral Porter at the Mouth of the Red River—The Fleet all Safe—Gen. Banks at Semmesport—Sherman Again in Pursuit of Johnston—The Way the Armies are Being Reinforced and Supplied.

[OFFICIAL.]

WASHINGTON, May 23.

Maj.-Gen. Dix:

Dispatches from Maj.-Gen. Canby, dated mouth of the Red River, at midnight, May 15, state that "Admiral Porter has just arrived. The remainder of the gunboats will arrive to-night. Gen. Banks will probably reach Semmesport, on the Atchafalaya to-morrow."

A dispatch from Admiral Porter, dated on board the flagship Black Hawk, mouth of Red River, May 16 states that the portion of the squadron above the falls at Alexandria have been released from their unpleasant position, owing to the indefatigable exertions of Lieut.-Col. Bailey, Acting Engineer of the Nineteenth Army Corps, who proposed and built a tree dam of six hundred feet across the river at the lower falls, which enabled all the vessels to pass in safety, the back-water of the Mississippi reaching Alexandria, and allowed them to pass over all the shoals and the obstructions planted by the enemy, to a point of safety. Lieut.-Col. Bailey will be immediately nominated for promotion, for distinguished and meritorious services.

An unofficial report from Cairo, dated May 22, states that the army and gunboats were all safe at the mouth of the Red River and Semmesport.

Maj.-Gen. Sherman, by a dispatch dated 8:30 P. M. last night, reports that he would be ready by the morning to resume his operations. Returned veterans and regiments, he says, have more than replaced all losses and detachments.

We have no official reports since my last telegram from Gen. Grant or Gen. Butler.

Official reports of this department show that within eight days after the great battle of Spottsylvania Court-house, many thousand veteran troops have been forwarded to Gen. Grant.

The whole army has been amply supplied with full rations of subsistence.

Upward of twenty thousand sick and wounded have been transported from the fields of battle to the Washington hospitals, and placed under surgical care.

Over eight thousand prisoners have been transported from the field to prison depots, and large amounts of artillery and other implements of an active campaign brought away.

Several thousand fresh cavalry horses have been forwarded to the army, and the Grand Army of the Potomac is now fully as strong in numbers and better equipped, supplied and furnished than when the campaign opened.

Several thousand reinforcements have also been forwarded to other armies in the field, and ample supplies to all.

During the same time over thirty thousand volunteers for a hundred days have been mustered into the service, clothed, armed, equipped, and transported to their respective positions.

This statement is due to the chiefs of the army staff and bureau, and their respective corps, to whom the credit belongs.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

THE FLANK MOVEMENT.

Lee's Right Flank Effectually Turned—Our Advance Eighteen Miles South of Spottsylvania on Saturday—Lee Falling Back—Hard Fighting Expected.

From Our Special Correspondent.

GUINEA'S STATION, Saturday, May 21—7 P. M.

The Army of the Potomac is again on the march toward Richmond. During the night, Hancock's corps, which had held the left of our lines in front of Spottsylvania Court-house, took up its march, moving on the road parallel with the Ny River. Early this morning it reached Guinea's Station, on the Fredericksburgh and Richmond railroad, twelve miles due south of Fredericksburgh. Thence it pushed onward, following the railroad, and to-night finds the head of Hancock's column at Bowling-green, eighteen miles south of Fredericksburgh. The other corps have been to-day following the same general line, and the Fifth is now passing the point at which this dispatch is dated. You will observe from these indications that the Commanding General has effected a turning movement on the right flank of Lee, who is now hastily falling back to take up a fresh defensive position. It is expected that his next stand will be on the South Anna River, although he may endeavor to hit us while moving by the flank, just as he did when outflanked in his lines on the Rapidan.

Heavy firing, in fact, is this moment heard across the Ny, where one of our columns is moving. A mile south by west of Guineas Station is the point of confluence of the Po and Ny Rivers, and at this point the stream is crossed by Guinea's Bridge, which is in our possession. The river south of the junction of the Po and the Ny is called by the inhabitants of the country the "Mattapony," although the Mat and Ta, its other two affluents, do not enter it till we reach a point a dozen miles south of this.

Our army is now all gone from the front it has held before Spottsylvania Court-house for the past two weeks, and the lines of Spottsylvania pass into history. They are associated with fighting as desperate as was ever made by embattled foes, and by the greatest valor on the part of both armies. Its woods sepulchre thousands of bodies of brave men, perished in the great cause for which this army marches and fights and suffers.

You will notice by the map that our present front, while it puts us in a very advantageous position in regard to the enemy, at the same time perfectly covers our communications, which are by way of Fredericksburgh and Acquia Creek. The railroad will soon be open from Acquia Creek to Fredericksburgh, and will doubtless be put in order south of that point as we advance. There are also several available points of water communication by the Rappahannock, as at Port Royal, &c., which will probably be used.

I should misrepresent the conviction of the soundest heads in this army if I should convey the impression that our progress is to be now only a triumphal march. We shall be met by the most obdurate resistance which skill and courage on the part of the enemy can commend. But Gen. Grant has given you the key-note of the sentiment of this army: we shall go through with this business, "if it takes all Summer to do it." SWINTON.

GEN. BURNSIDE'S CORPS.

The Ten Days' Struggle—The Roads—The Prisoners—Reinforcements.

Correspondence of the New-York Times:

IN CAMP, NY RIVER, Monday, May 16, 1864.

After ten days' fighting, more terrible than the fighting on the Peninsula, at Antietam, or at Gettysburgh, we have driven the enemy to the heights lying on the north and northeast of Spottsylvania Court-house. But the struggle has cost us dear. One-third of the Army of the Potomac is hors du combat, and for a few days, before we again deliver battle, our brave and inspirited soldiers must be allowed to rest. Supplies also must be brought up from Belle Plain through Fredericksburgh, before the army can again move.

We have taken 18 guns from the enemy, 8,000 prisoners, and have inflicted on them a loss probably equal to our own. The military character of the Lieutenant-General, in this campaign at least, seems to be that of a man of untiring energy and of invincible determination. By dint of desperate fighting he intends to cut his way to Richmond.

The spirit of the army is high and confident. During the last three days I have talked constantly, by the roadside, around the camp fires, in the batteries and rifle-pits, in the hospitals, with hundreds of soldiers. "We are sure to win this time," are the words I have always heard. Their severe marching and fighting have not lessened, scanty rations and the pelting rain, have not diminished their assurance of final, complete success.

This is the first clear day since the 11th. Daily rains have made almost impassable our roads of supply, the turnpike and the plank road to Orange Court-house, and the road to Spottsylvania Court-house. No one can form a correct notion of the condition of the highways except from personal observation. Even as I write, by the wooded roadside at headquarters, three horses of six, which are harnessed to an army wagon, are lying on their sides in the mud. The teamster is wading about, trying to unharness them; the roadmaster is helping him by giving contradictory orders, and by very loud and very vigorous cursing. Dead horses and broken down army wagons and ambulances one meets with nearly every mile, as well as occasionally the half-engulphed body of a mule, which, getting cast in the traces, has been suffocated in the mud before he could be rescued. The soil of this portion of Virginia is sand or loam, and the three or four thousand army wagons which compose our supply train cut up the roads and the fields by the roadside whenever rain falls for a few hours. But on the other hand, the soil is porous, and two or three days of pleasant weather will enable our large train to bring up abundant supplies of hard bread, salt pork and salt beef.

At Fredericksburgh I chanced to see two thousand prisoners marching under escort to Belle Plain. They were a motley crowd, scantily dressed, and ununiformed. But I saw nothing in their countenances or in their movements which indicated lack of food in the rebel army. They were as vigorous and healthy in appearance as our own troops. I have made particular inquiries from our soldiers respecting the condition of the rebel prisoners when they were first taken. The result of these inquiries has convinced me that Lee has thus far been able to supply his army with sufficient food.

To-day the Ninth Army Corps lies about four miles from Spottsylvania Court-house. Batteries guard the crests of the ridge on which we lie. From a section of the battery of the Eleventh Massachusetts, whose guns are three-inch Parrotts, taken from us at the first Bull Run battle, and retaken by us at Bristoe Station, I have just looked over a portion of our extended lines. Sharpshooters lie in the edge of the woods which bound the horizon, and which conceal the rebel fortifications. The crack of their rifles is incessant. The rebel riflemen are equally on the alert. But casualties are few. Two wounded men of our own and one wounded man of the rebels, is the result, thus far, of the incessant picket-firing directly in our front. Within easy shelling range of the enemy's batteries, in a dense wood of pines and hemlocks, the headquarters of the Ninth Army Corps have been pitched. We change them, I trust, to-morrow. Not a hundred feet from the shelter-tent of Gen. Burnside, a dozen cattle have been slaughtered for the use of the army. The offal lies festering in the sun, and last night the odor, blown through our camp, was exceedingly offensive.

On the left of our lines, just beyond our rifle-pits and in plain view, lie the bodies of several rebels, who were killed during the great battle of the 12th. One is the body of an officer. His gray coat is ornamented with gold lace, but the badges of his rank have been taken from his coat by our soldiers, as trophies or as mementos.

In the operations of the Ninth Army Corps the Third New-Jersey Cavalry, Col. Morrison, have taken an arduous part. The duty assigned to this regiment was, and still is, to patrol the country on both sides of the Rapidan, from near its junction with the Rappahannock to Germanna Ford. On the 11th and 12th hourly reports were sent from the patroling lines to Gen. Burnside. It was the assurance which these reports gave, that no enemy was in his rear, that enabled him to throw his whole force into the battle of the 12th. For the thorough manner in which this regiment did its duty on these days, Gen. Burnside, in the presence of his staff, warmly thanked Col. Morrison.

The army is cheered to-day with the news that reinforcements, large enough to fully supply our losses, have been landed at Belle Plain. In a few days we shall resume our advance. God give us a complete and final victory! H. B.

FROM FREDERICKSBURGH.

Ewell's Attack Upon Our Right—Desperate Fighting of the Heavy Artillery Regiments.

From Our Own Correspondent.

FREDERICKSBURGH, Friday, May 20—6 A. M.

Yesterday our forces were massing on the left, and the enemy made a show of massing in the same direction by exposing their columns moving past Spottsylvania Court-house. Toward night a large force, said to be Ewell's whole corps, made a demonstration upon our extreme right, and for a time cut off all communication between the army and Fredericksburgh. Our forces in that vicinity, composed largely of artillery, acting as infantry, were at first repelled, but upon receiving reinforcements from the Ninth Corps, promptly rallied, and in less than an hour the enemy was handsomely repulsed. Our loss was heavy, and so was that of the enemy, who made a desperate attempt to cut our communications.

Guerrillas hover on the road between Belle Plain and Fredericksburgh, and also between the latter place and the army. A party attacked some straggling teamsters night before last near Gen. Hooker's old headquarters, two miles from Falmouth, and beside capturing several horses, shot a teamster and then cut his throat. The Provost-Marshal of Fredericksburgh is arresting all citizens to-day, upon the supposition that they have furnished the enemy with information which led to the attack last night.

Lists of Casualties—Slaughter of the Rebels.

FREDERICKSBURGH, Saturday, May 21.

Inclosed you will find a pretty full list of men killed and wounded during Thursday evening, 19th, when Ewell attempted to flank us on the right. Most of the men who resisted this formidable attack never were in a fight before—artillerymen from the forts about Washington acting as infantry.

Our loss in that fight, which lasted about an hour and a half, will probably reach 1,000. But the enemy were fairly slaughtered. Some persons believe that they had as many killed as our total loss. The line has been advanced one and a half miles.

THE PIRATE FLORIDA.

Steering for the Track of Vessels from America to England.

The rebel steamer Florida sailed on the 14th from Bermuda, after landing an officer who was sick, and stood to the northward. She reported having burned a New-York ship from Callao about three weeks previous, and sent her crew to England on a foreign vessel.

From Newbern.

The North Carolina Times of the 21st is received. There is nothing very new in it.

The rebels in Little Washington set fire to the town on the 11th, destroying all but about twenty houses, and robbed all the women and children in the place.

Our Rifle Pits Seized—Part of Them Retaken.

Particulars of the Capture of the Rebel General Walker.

From Our Own Correspondent.

IN CAMP, BERMUDA HUNDRED, VA., Friday Night, May 20—10 P. M.

Beauregard will not "let us alone." After the fighting last Monday, as you already know, Gen. Butler brought his forces down in good order to their present position in the intrenchments, a few miles this side of the railroad, but the active little French creole sharply followed with his cohorts. Why could he not have stayed in peaceable possession of Fort Darling and the long line of its outer defences? We had given them a fair trial and found them too hard a nut to crack while a part of our strength was necessarily expended elsewhere. But, Mr. Beauregard, like all other unfeeling rebs., seems not to care a snap of his finger for our convenience, for even while I am writing this, the stillness of the night is continually broken by the heavy boom and sharp rattling reverberations of artillery as the woods sheltering his misguided cohorts are vigorously shelled. Indeed, there has been very lively fighting all day in front of Gen. Gillmore's lines, and the enemy, as long ago as yesterday, began to develop himself in force in our front. The old saying that the wicked find no peace may, with great propriety, be applied to this entire command, for not only have the vile among us, but likewise the righteous, been kept in a tense strain of activity in their various spheres—Generals down through all the grades to drummer boys—ever since the occupation of this choice strip of Virginia territory.

I have been riding about considerably to-day to learn what I might of the fighting, and have just arrived in camp from Gen. Gillmore's headquarters, which are probably two miles from here, provided one happens to take the direct road. But, unfortunately, these pesky roads are full of blind and intersecting paths, whose shady depths are beguiling to strangers, but strayed into, are found to lead nowhither, like the labyrinth of classic fable. Into one of these I diverged, and here I am at last, pretty thoroughly fatigued by a long and patient effort to thread my own way out. It may interest some to know that I was materially aided in the consummation by a telegraph wire which I happened finally to strike upon in the forest. It was moonlight, and discovering this voiceless messenger of the military authorities, whose running between the various headquarters I hope it is not contraband to mention, I followed its guidance gratefully to our encampment.

But excuse this long prologue. I have more important matters to communicate. I have seen to-day the wounds, the mangled forms, the shocking as well as the noble incidents of horrid war—and of the savage fighting out of which they result I must give some account.

Long after midnight the enemy began to demonstrate heavily upon that portion of our line held by Gen. Ames, being the Third Division of the Tenth Corps, and also with scarcely less fierceness upon the left of the First Division (Gen. Terry's) connecting with Ames. The night was moonlight and misty, and altogether favorable for the assault. The rebels, therefore, made a desperate effort to drive back the centre of our line, which they supposed to be the weakest, hoping to cut us in two. The assault upon our works was gallantly repulsed by both Terry and Ames, with scarcely any loss whatever to us, but it is said at a severe cost to the enemy. The sudden firing of artillery and musketry at the dead hour of night, of course, disturbed the encampments everywhere and there was a hasty sending out of mounted orderlies to ascertain its meaning. Less than half an hour of tumult passed, however, when matters again subsided into stillness. The weary troops, lying in the rifle-pits, again roll themselves snugly in their blankets, and clasping their trusty muskets to their hands, are soon once more asleep after the rude, disturbing episode.

The remainder of the night passed in quietness. Gen. Gillmore and his staff rode out at daybreak and made such dispositions of his forces as was though best to meet another expected assault; and the ever watchful and soldierly Smith, who knows intuitively precisely what is required for any possible military emergency, and anticipates every movement of the enemy by making the necessary counter preparations to thwart it, had the Eighteenth Corps ready for whatever might occur.

At 9½ o'clock the enemy again made demonstrations in force against the centre of our line, driving in, in some confusion, the pickets, and getting possession of our rifle-pits in front of Ames, about 1,200 yards from our works—making it necessary, also, for Gen. Terry to withdraw his picket line connecting with Ames' left.

It was absolutely necessary to retake the line of rifle-pits thus unfortunately lost, and to keep possession of which the enemy has obstinately contended. To this end there has been stubborn fighting all day, and from the front of Terry the rebels at nightfall had been dislodged, but Ames had not recovered all his line.

Among the incidents of the day, the Thirteenth Indiana were sent out by Gen. Ames to recover the last position. The enemy met them with a blasting musketry fire, and the loss was very large. Among the officers of this regiment wounded and missing are: Lieut.-Col. Wilson, in the shoulder; Capt. Rothrock, Company C, mortally; Capt. Hunter, Company I, and Lieut. Hendricks, Company F missing—having been left on the field between two fires; Lieut. Vance, Company B. Probably no more noble incident has happened during the war than one of which Sergt. John Ream, of Company B, this regiment, is the hero. Lieut.-Col. Wilson had fallen wounded on the field. The regiment was retreating hastily under the fire. The wounded officer, in his helplessness, recognized Sergt. Ream as he passed. He called him: "Carry me off the field, Sergeant," said the Colonel. The noble fellow stopped, regardless of the whizzing balls, and throwing away his musket, gently lifted Col. Wilson upon his back and coolly walked off the field, exposed every step of the way to instant death, never dropping his burden until he had regained the shelter of the intrenchments.

In the afternoon a charge was made upon the rifle-pits by the Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania Regiment under Maj. Pennypacker. It was a deadly movement to the boys of the Keystone State. There seems to have been a misapprehension of the order. They were told or expected to advance upon the enemy under shelter of the woods, but instead of doing so, charged madly across an open field between our works and the pits. They were slaughtered like sheep by the concentrated fire of a field battery. Below I give a partial list of the wounded—the officers suffered greatly.

The line in front of Gen. Terry was recovered by Col. Howell's brigade, assisted by the One Hundred and Forty-second New-York, Col. Curtis, and the Eighty-ninth New-York, Col. Fairchild. In this effort the rebel Brig.-Gen. William S. Walker, commanding the South Carolina brigade, was captured. He was reconnoitering the left of the enemy's line, when Col. Howell dashed upon him at the head of his brigade. Walker at first thought our men were his own, but soon discovering his error, put spurs to his horse to get away. A volley brought him down. He received one wound in the left arm and another shot tore off part of his leg. He was quite cool, brave and insolent when Col. Howell approached him. The latter is also brave as Julius Cæsar, and as perfect a gentleman as ever breathed. His soft reply to the angry rebel officer turned away his wrath completely. A litter was procured, and he was tenderly conveyed to Gen. Gillmore's headquarters, himself requesting that no operation should be performed on him until he was taken out of the range of the shells. He also asked to see Gen. "Baldy" Smith and Gen. Terry, having known the former before the war, when he was an honored officer of the old army, and having met Gen. Terry several times in the progress of the South Carolina campaign. Walker commanded the forces at Pocotaligo when Gen. O. M. Mitchell attempted to cut the railroad. Dr. Craven, Medical Director of the Tenth Corps, gave up his tent to the wounded man, and there I saw him a little while since, moaning in agony, and so weak from loss of blood that the amputation of his limb, though necessary, had to be postponed until such time as he should rally. There seems to be little chance of his recovering. He dictated a letter, last night, to Gen. Beauregard, stating the circumstances of his capture, describing his injuries, and expressing his acknowledgments of the courtesy and kindness he had received, requesting that the communication might be sent by flag of truce.

Our losses yesterday were considerable. The enemy, however, suffered incomparably more. Our batteries played havoc with them as they were massed in the woods. The One Hundred and Forty-second New-York and Eighty-ninth New-York both suffered severely. Companies B and G of the former regiment kept two rebel regiments at bay, and lost 38 in killed. The Eighty-ninth lost about 150, of whom 30 were killed. Maj. N. G. Axtell was wounded twice, but not seriously. Lieut.-Col. Jackson's horse was shot as he was getting Sage's and the Fourth New-Jersey Battery in position.

P. S. Saturday morning, 6 o'clock.—The firing was renewed about an hour since, at the place where the rebels demonstrated yesterday. H. J. W.

All Quiet on Saturday—Both Armies Digging—Night Attacks—The Wounded—The Rebels Repulsed at Fort Powhatan.

IN CAMP, BERMUDA HUNDRED, VA., Sunday Morning, May 21, 1864.

Yesterday there was very little fighting. For the first time since our coming here, the expression "all is quiet along the lines," might have been truthfully used. Early in the morning there was a brisk picket skirmish in front of Terry's division, for the purpose of pushing forward a short distance; and occasionally during the day, the gunboats on our flanks, in the Appomattox and the James, relieved the silence by sending a few shells into the woods to disturb working parties of the enemy. On both sides, as far as I could discover, the troops are vigorously digging to make their respective positions impregnable. Passing along our lines in the afternoon, and looking upon the busy scene where spades and axes were the implements of warfare, my unprofessional eye was satisfied that I need no longer feel alarmed about spending a cheerless Summer in the Libby. Mr. Beauregard would find it, I think, a difficult matter to drive us out of here or "gobble" us. His army in front of us, from the best information given by deserters and prisoners, is estimated at thirty thousand men. Their object seems to be, from the way in which they are piling up earthworks, to keep Gen. Butler penned in here, away from the railroad and turnpike, the loss of which last week was quite damaging to their military schemes.

Since retiring to this point the charge of our defences has been assigned to Brig.-Gen. Godfrey Weitzel, whose reputation as an engineer is first-class. The Second Division of the Eighteenth Corps, (Gen. Smith's) which Weitzel has splendidly led in all the fighting since we came here, was yesterday turned over to Brig.-Gen. Martindale, who will ably fill Weitzel's place.

A night attack upon Gen Ames, (Second Division of the Tenth Corps,) was the chief incident of the last twenty-four hours. It was made at 11 o'clock, and lasted until midnight, when all became quiet again. There is something very exciting connected with these sudden assaults which the enemy often makes. For instance, last night when the furious storm of war burst over us, the camp of Gen. Butler's headquarters was changed in a second of time from the quiet of a grave-yard to the bustle and animation of a market-place. A sloping meadow, whereon a canvas city picturesquely stands bathed in silvery moonlight—where the solemn hush is scarcely broken by the footsteps of the sentinels—is transformed in the twinkling of an eye to a place where the noisy accessories of war have full play. The silent tents are alive with men, who swarm out hastily, half-dressed, yet, like true soldiers, thoroughly and instantly awake at the first report of the artillery, and ready for any duty. Horses, fully equipped in their showy and lumbersome military trappings, appear magically from the rear, and orderlies, with clanking sabres and jingling spurs, come out and hold their fretting steeds ready to dash madly away wherever they shall be sent. In the meanwhile there is an incessant rattling of musketry and a quick thundering of artillery over the woods scarcely two miles away, with an occasional vivid flash caused by a shell too highly aimed exploding above the tree-tops. Suddenly there is a prolonged and ringing cheer, which never comes from other throats than those of Union soldiers. This announces to us that the enemy's assault has been re-

GENERAL CITY NEWS.

THE LATE SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.—An inquest was held by Coroner NAUMANN on the body of WM. NEWMANN, who, on Saturday afternoon last, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head in the Jewish Cemetery, in Eighty-eighth-street. He was standing over the grave of a young sister at the time he committed the fatal act. For the last six years he has been connected with the Fourteenth United States Infantry Regiment. He was honorably discharged recently, and reenlisted for three years more. He had been in a depressed state of mind for several days, and became more so upon learning that several of his late associates in the army had been killed in one of the late battles under Gen. BUTLER. He placed the muzzle of a small revolver to his forehead and discharged it. The bullet was found deeply imbedded in his brain. Death ensued in a short time after. Deceased was 37 years of age and a native of Germany.

VIOLATION OF AN ORDINANCE—ONE OF THE RESULTS.—During the excitement of a fire in the rear of Madame CHEGARAY's school, in Fortieth-street, on Saturday evening, CHARLES L. TIFFANY, of the house of TIFFANY & Co., was knocked down by the drag-rope of a Hose Company, run over by the carriage, and only escaped annihilation by the aid of a chance which sometimes intervenes between life and recklessness. Mr. TIFFANY was walking on the sidewalk at the time of the accident, and the Hose Company, in likewise occupying the sidewalk, was violating a very plain municipal regulation, which will be enforced after a score or so of valuable citizens shall have become illustrations of its usefulness. The present illustration was obliged to keep his house on Sunday, but, we are glad to hear, was able to attend to business yesterday.

THE MARY POWELL.—This new and elegant steamer, running between this City and Rondout, landing at Cozzens, West Point, Cornwall, Newburgh, New-Hamburgh, Milton and Poughkeepsie, has made her appearance for the season of 1864 in a glory of carpet, curtain and decoration that captivates the throng of travelers who daily crowd her decks. Let any one take the Powell some sultry dusty afternoon, and enjoy the luxury of a sail up the Hudson, surrounded by her elegant comforts, and invigorated by her "substantial" ones, and there will be a concurrence in the opinion that the Powell is one of the finest boats on the Hudson, and ANDERSON one of the best of Captains.

ANOTHER RAILROAD PICKPOCKET.—James NIXON was arrested yesterday in Broad street, charged, on the complaint of Mr. CHARLES FIELDS, of Warick-place, with having picked his pocket on a City car near the Staten Island Ferry, of $275 in United States notes, with coupons attached, and a quantity of other money. FIELDS felt NIXON's hand in his pocket, and, on turning round, the latter jumped from the car and ran, closely pursued by the victim. When in Broad-street, NIXON threw something away, which, on examination, proved to be $145 of the stolen money. The remainder was not recovered. Justice HOGAN committed the prisoner for examination.

SALE OF COAL FOR THE SANITARY COMMISSION.—The public will not forget the sale of the 1,000 tons of coal, the gift to the Sanitary Commission, which takes place to-day, (Tuesday,) at noon, at the Merchants' Exchange Reading Room, No. 50 Pine-street.

NOTICE TO PERSONS CLAIMING EXEMPTION.—By reference to an order published in another column it will be seen that the Provost-Marshal-General notifies all persons claiming exemption under the amended enrollment act to present their claims immediately to the Board of Enrollment in the District in which they reside.

A BOY DROWNED.—LEWIS MEYERS, a boy aged nine years, whose parents reside at No. 345 Greenwich-street, was drowned at the foot of Harrison-street, North River, on Sunday afternoon. The body was recovered yesterday, and Coroner NAUMANN was notified to hold an inquest.

ARRIVAL OF BLOCKADE-RUNNERS.—Yesterday ninety-four blockade-runners, who arrived from Key West on the steamer Newbern, last Saturday, were committed to the County Jail by Marshal MURRAY.

ENLISTMENTS.—There were forty-nine men enlisted at the City Hall Park recruiting station yesterday, a slight increase over Monday of last week.

Ex-Gov. Price, of New-Jersey, and Major-Gen. Keyes at Loggerheads—Alleged Conspiracy to Defraud.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Judge Foster.

Rodman M. Price vs. Squire P. Dewey, Erasmus D. Keyes, et al.—This was an action brought by the plaintiff, Ex-Governor of New-Jersey, against the defendant, for an alleged conspiracy to defraud. The plaintiff alleges that about the year 1851 he was the owner of a large property in the State of California; that being about to leave that State, he appointed as his agent and attorney the defendant, Erasmus D. Keyes (now Major-General of volunteers), then a Captain in the United States army, commanding a fort near where plaintiff's property was situated; that after his departure from the State, the defendant Keyes conspired with the other defendants, and sold the entire property for $135,000, when its actual value was $300,000; that the other defendants were the purchasers of it.

The defendants maintain that the property was incumbered; that it was sold for its full value, and that the sale was made to secure the best interests of plaintiff.

Case still on, and will be further noticed.

James T. Brady for plaintiff; Lewis B. Woodruff and Wm. Fullerton for defendants.

Argument in the Case of Cooke, the Bounty Broker—An Alleged Newspaper Conviction.

SUPREME COURT—GENERAL TERM.

Before Justices Leonard, Clerke and Welles.

The People vs. James K. Cooke.—This case has become very notorious as the "Bounty Broker Case." The defendant was convicted in the General Sessions of obtaining money by means of false pretences. The indictment charged in effect that Cooke, with intent to defraud one John J. Robinson, did falsely pretend to Robinson that he, Cooke, was a Captain in the Sixth New-York Cavalry, and was enlisting soldiers by authority of the United States Government for his company, to wit, a company in the said cavalry, whereas Cooke was not a Captain in the Sixth New-York Cavalry; and whereas, he, Cooke, was not enlisting soldiers by authority of the United States Government for his company, to wit, said company of cavalry; and whereas, the pretences so made by Cooke to Robinson were in all respects utterly false.

It also alleges that Robinson, believing these pretences, did deliver to Cooke an amount of bounty money, to wit, a sum of $250, in the lawful moneys of the United States, "of the proper moneys of the said Robinson."

During the trial a question was made of variance in respect to the name; the complainant signing his name Rob-i-son; but the short-hand reporter, the Magistrate, and the Surrogate's clerk, taking the name and writing it as it was sounded, and as in the indictment, Rob-in-son. But the Recorder left it to the jury to say whether there was a variance in the sound, and the jury found in the negative.

The jury finding the prisoner guilty, the case was taken to the General Term of this court on appeal, and was now argued on the following points by the prisoner's counsel:

The indictment stated no offence. The alleged false representations were immaterial, and no conviction can be sustained even if they were proved. The Recorder should have charged as requested, in reference to the name of the complainant. The court erred in refusing to charge as requested—that as this indictment was for obtaining the money from Robinson, and Robinson never had the money, and never owned it—that defendant could not be convicted.

The prisoner was convicted not on the evidence, but by and on account of public prejudice and in obedience to newspaper clamor.

The District-Attorney replied at some length, and decision was reserved.

Gilbert Dean, for prisoner; A. Oakey Hall, for people.

MONDAY, May 23—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the old Banks of the City of New-York on Saturday, May 21, 1864, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of May 14:

Increase in Loans	$3,178,018
Decrease in Specie	543,564
Decrease in Circulation	115,002
Decrease in Undrawn Deposits	1,314,598

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including also the Sub-Treasury balance at the close of the week, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

	May 23, 1863.	May 21, 1864.	May 14, 1864.
Capital	$69,128,000	$69,927,725	$69,927,725
Loans	181,319,815	197,356,939	194,178,921
Specie	38,544,865	22,091,691	22,635,155
Circulation	6,780,678	5,367,355	5,482,357
Gross Deposits	231,039,782	250,642,777	242,935,350
Exchanged	63,384,124	77,530,893	68,508,668
Undrawn	167,655,658	173,111,884	174,426,682
In Sub-Treasury	24,130,198	25,410,797	19,988,240

The Bank return shows an expansion of Loans and Discounts, without a corresponding gain in the line of Deposits. The statement attracts no particular attention, as the general market for Money is easy, and the Banks after the 1st of June will be amply supplied with Legal-Tender to further enhance their Loans, if the right material should offer at rates above the 5 ℘ cent. which these Legal-Tenders carry. The rate for Money, as the rule of the Street, is now 6 ℘ cent.

A moderate amount of business was done at the Stock Exchange to-day. In the main, prices were lower on the Railway and miscellaneous Shares than the last sales of Saturday, and steady on the Government Securities. Speculation was not particularly spirited on any department of the list, and the disposition appeared to be, among outsiders as well as at the Board, to await further news from the armies. The price of Gold was about the same (or a fraction lower) as on Saturday night.

At 4 o'clock the following prices were made in comparison with the last sales of Saturday afternoon. The Railways left off steady and partially better than at the Second Board. A fair amount of transactions at the Open Board:

	Sat.	Mon.		Sat.	Mon.

It is proper to state that the New-York Stock Exchange Board is wholly free from complicity with the fraud and forgery of last week of the so-called President's proclamation. Such is our belief after due inquiry into the particulars of the affair. Even the firm who had previous intercourse with the forger, and who informed upon him, are not members of the Board. It is also proper to add that several applications for membership at the Stock Exchange Board have been rejected within a few days past, on the mere supposition of disloyalty to the Government. An instance of the kind occurred to-day, where the general good character of the applicant was vouched for by one of the oldest members of the Board.

We learn that Mr. CHARLES P. CUMMINGS, junior member of the house of CAMMANN & Co., has been admitted to membership at the Stock Exchange Board.

We learn that the Ninth National Bank, J. M. ORVIS, President, has become a regular depositary of the Government, and will take an active agency in the distribution of the new 10-40 Loan. The location of the Bank is in Broadway, near Franklin-street. Mr. G. W. LEAKE, for many years cashier of the People's Bank, in Canal-street, is among the officials of the new Bank.

As the time draws near when the 7.30 ℘ cent. Treasury Notes are to be converted into the long Stock of 1881 or paid off in Currency, the question of stolen Notes becomes one of interest to Brokers and others dealing in or holding them for conversion. The numbers and denominations of such Notes against which caveats have been entered in the last year or two at the department, it strikes us, ought at once to be advertised by the Secretary, in order that the frauds be traced before the Notes are sent to Washington, where, we understand, the practice is to detain them until the question of ownership is determined. Otherwise, the chance of reclamation by Brokers and others, who have taken the precaution of registering the names of the previous holder from whom they purchased, is rendered very remote. With the Notes in hand, however, the remedy is immediate on advice of the caveat.

A Government creditor writes that he received, a day or two since, a Treasury Draft on one of the National Banks of this City, (a regularly constituted Government depositary,) and in payment received a promiscuous package of National Bank Currency which his own city bank, the Bank of America, refused on deposit. He makes inquiry on the legal point in the question. This is easily answered. All National Bank Notes are a legal tender in payment of all claims against the Government other than interest on the Funded Public Debt. They are also a legal tender in all payments to the Government, other than for Customs. Our correspondent may rest assured that the Notes were not refused at the Bank of America in ignorance of the law or because they are not current, or even superabundant. It was simply a piece of petty spite on the part of the President of the Bank, (who is opposed to the National Banking system,) without the sanction of his highly reputable Board of Directors. Under the circumstances, the only remedy we can suggest to our correspondent is to change his account. There are fifty odd other banks in town of equal respectability, and, we should hope, of more common sense in their executive management.

The day's business at the office of the United States Assistant Treasurer is as follows: Total receipts, $1,231,413 98, including for Customs, $162,000; Payments, $3,090,450 50; balance, $23,551,760 60; Ten-forties, $45,650.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

TO CAPITALISTS.

An interest in a Foundry and Machine-shop in Saint Louis, Mo., for sale. A party with not less than $25,000, (a larger amount could be used to advantage,) desiring to invest in an old and well established foundry and machine-shop, in Saint Louis, Mo., now doing a large and profitable business, can purchase an interest therein, by addressing the undersigned, who will give all necessary information. By action of the State Convention, Missouri is now a free State, and her immense mineral wealth, developed by free labor, will make her one of the richest States in the West. The abundance of iron and coal in the immediate vicinity of the city, makes this a very desirable investment.
WM. H. MARKHAM,
Saint Louis, Mo.

A RARE BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.—A gentleman having $50,000 invested in the manufacture of a staple article of commerce, established at a point in this State where the materials are the most accessible in the country, having its principal sales depot in New-York, is desirous of associating with one or more parties, with an equal amount of capital, to enlarge the business commensurate with its increasing demands. The business is first-class, and offers unusual inducements for a profitable and safe investment, and the advertiser can furnish the best of testimonials that the representations are reliable. Address MANUFACTURER, Box No. 398 New-York Post-office.

FOR SALE.—A COMPETENT AND RESPONSIBLE dentist, with some cash, can have an old established and lucrative office. Address Box No. 5,738 New-York Post-office.

FOR SALE—A CROCKERY STORE. FOR PARTICULARS, apply at No. 16 Spruce-st., office of Thompson's Reporter.

SANITARY COMMISSION.

UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION,
No. 823 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, May 18, 1864.

THE FOLLOWING COPY OF A LETTER from Gen. ASBOTH to the Agent of the United States Sanitary Commission at New-Orleans, in regard to the very destitute condition of the wives and children of the the Union men of Florida, speaks for itself. As such disposition of its funds, the providence of the Commission, special contributions for the relief of these women and children whose husbands and fathers are in the Union army, will be received at the office of the Commission, and dispensed by the agent at Pensacola. Clothing, such as dresses for women and children, under-clothing, &c., should be marked, "For Florida Unionists," and be sent to the supply depot of the Commission, at No. 10 Cooper Union, New-York:

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF PENSACOLA,
BARRANCAS, 24th April, 1864.

SIR: I beg to state that there are at this place over six hundred, and at East Pass near two hundred destitute women and children, entirely dependent on the United States Government for support. To prevent starvation, I have, in accordance with War Department General Order No. 30, current series, directed the Commissary of Subsistence to issue rations to them, and sheltered them with condemned tents, but the limited means at my disposal are inadequate for the daily increasing number, and an application to Department Headquarters for medical assistance having been disapproved, much additional suffering must ensue during the coming sickly season among these unfortunate victims of the rebellion, unless immediate steps are taken in their behalf.

I would therefore request, in the name of humanity, that an assistant agent of the United States Sanitary Commission be sent here to assist in providing for their urgent wants.

I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
ASBOTH, Brig.-Gen.

Dr. BLAKE, Agent United States Sanitary Commission, New-Orleans.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1864.

A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
J. I. & J. O. WEST, NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW YORK,

Are the owners of the patent and exclusive manufacturers of this,

J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED DUPLEX ELLIPTIC STEEL SPRING SKIRTS.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable spring ever used, enabling the wearer, in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness, to place and fold the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to hoop skirts, viz.: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them to occupying a small space. This entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, and by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this City and throughout the different States.

FOR SALE.

VALUABLE HOTEL.—FOR SALE OR TO LET—A valuable hotel, beautifully situated on the west bank of the Passaic River, on the main street in the village of Belleville, New-Jersey, only nine miles from New-York and three from Newark, to which place a railroad is nearly completed and will be running in a short time, and connecting there with the railroad to New-York, thus making this a very desirable location for a hotel or Summer boarding-house. The buildings are commodious, having twenty-five furnished rooms, beside office and large public hall, kitchen, cellar, &c.; excellent garden; also barns, stables, sheds, &c. All have lately been thoroughly repaired and painted, and are in good order. They will be sold low, on accommodating terms, or let to a good tenant for one or more years. Also for sale, several valuable building lots in the village, and a farm of about fifty acres near the above premises. Inquire of T. B. CODDINGTON, No. 80 Broad-st., or of JOHN W. DOW, Belleville, near the premises.

A FAMILY WISHING TO TAKE AN ADvantageous settlement on a valuable landed estate in one of the healthiest and pleasantest locations in Dutchess County, within three hours of New-York, will have the opportunity by applying to the subscriber; the property comprises about 60 acres of productive land, with very superior buildings; the revenue from this land is chiefly from the hay crop, which is of the finest quality, and worth over $2,200 per annum; but the house is spacious as well as elegant, and the property completely adapted either for a first-class farmer, a private school, a gentleman's residence or for the entertainment of Summer guests; price $11,000, but worth nearer $20,000; a person wishing such a place might look for it a lifetime, and then not do as well; another hundred acres of plowing, pasture and woodland can be added if desired.
C. G. PRATT, No. 38 Pine-st.

FOR SALE—AN ELEGANT AND DESIRABLE country seat, with 70 acres of land, in Columbia County, 4¾ miles east of the Hudson River Railroad depot at Oak Hill. The dwelling is large, and is complete for Summer or Winter use, and in perfect order; containing 18 or 20 rooms. The place is in the best condition and well fruited—the grounds mostly in grass. Lawn in front beautifully shaded. Views of the Cattskill Mountains on the east and inland very fine. Climate dry and healthy. The place is in the vicinity of the residence of Messrs. Johnson and Henry Livingston, and is a delightful residence for any party seeking retirement and a healthy and pleasant residence. Price $20,000. Apply to HOMER MORGAN, No. 2 Pine-st.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE FOR CITY property on the Hudson River, at Montrose Point, near Verplanck's Point, a country residence, consisting of 33 acres of land, comprising several beautiful building sites, with large brick house and all necessary outbuildings.

This place is unsurpassed for beauty of scenery and location. It is in the immediate vicinity of the residences of Messrs. Watkinson, Luqueer, &c., and is accessible at all times by steamboat and railroad, being one mile from East Haverstraw, half mile from Cruger's, and two and a half miles from Peekskill. Price $14,000.

For further particulars apply to HOMER MORGAN, No. 2 Pine-st.

COUNTRY RESIDENCE FOR SALE.—A handsome country residence, situated in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; the place contains between three and four acres of land, divided into lawn and garden, beautifully diversified and ornamented with shrubbery and lofty forest trees. The garden is stocked with a great abundance of the choicest fruit. The land lies partly within the city limits—the house standing just outside the line, being less than three-quarters of a mile from the centre. The house is modern built, and contains ten rooms, with every convenience. The situation is extremely healthful, and the neighborhood unexceptionable. Apply to JOHN S. CROUSE, Bank of Poughkeepsie, or to GEO. F. KETTELL, Rhinebeck, N. Y.

FOR SALE—A SUMMER HOTEL AT STAMFORD, Conn., situate on Henry-st., midway between the New-York and New-Haven Railroad Depot and the steamboat landing, about eighty rods from either. The premises consist of about two acres of land, with a large three-story and basement house, capable of accommodating some eighty boarders, built expressly for the business; good barn, abundance of fruit trees, &c. In accessibility, health and beautiful drives, Stamford is not surpassed by any place in the vicinity of New-York. For price and more full particulars, apply to E. A. QUINTARD, No. 9 Pine-st., or to MULLER, WILKENS & CO., No. 5½ Pine-st., New-York.

FOR SALE—THE SPLENDID MANSION AND farm of George Bradish, on Little Neck Bay, near Flushing, 100 acres of first-class land; pear orchard of 800 trees; fruit of all kinds, of first quality. The Bay is famous for shell and other fish in season; boat and bath houses at foot of lawn; two dwelling houses; the new one a first-class residence, complete in every particular; buildings on premises could not be replaced for $60,000. Views over Bay and Sound unsurpassed. Inquire of
R. C. EMBREE, No. 54 William-st. Room No. 22.
GEORGE BRADISH, No. 27 Cortlandt-st.

FOR SALE ON STATEN ISLAND.—A very handsome place in a healthy, commanding location, completely furnished; also, horses, carriages, and every requirement of comfort and elegance. The horses, which are very valuable, and the carriages, mostly new, are alone worth $5,000. The owner being about to visit Europe, will sell the whole—the place and all its appurtenances—for $35,000, if applied for immediately. Part of the purchase money may remain on mortgage. Apply to HOMER MORGAN, No. 4 Pine-st.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

There is no later news from Gen. Grant than that published yesterday. Cars have commenced running over a portion of the road from Aquia Creek to Fredericksburgh, and the remaining wounded will soon be brought up to Washington.

There is no later official news from Gen. Butler, but we learn from our special correspondence that the attack of the rebels upon our intrenched position at Bermuda Hundred was not renewed on Saturday, and that on that day everything was very quiet. The rebel Gen. Walker captured on Friday was very badly wounded, and would not probably recover.

Gen. Sherman resumed his pursuit of Johnston from Kingstown, yesterday morning, having spent two days in resting his forces and replenishing supplies.

Advices from Cairo to 22d inst. mention the arrival of Admiral Porter's flagship at Mound City, and report that the entire fleet is out of the Red River. In passing out, the fleet was greatly annoyed by rebel guerrillas. Our forces evacuated Alexandria last week. Fourteen delegates had been elected to represent the State of Louisiana in the Baltimore Convention. Intelligence from Matamoras states that the bad feeling between the native and the French residents had ripened into an actual outbreak. Official dispatches from Admiral Porter to Secretary Stanton confirm the statement that the fleet had passed out of the Red River.

Gov. Seymour is said to have written a letter to the District Attorney of New-York, directing him to procure indictments against all who were engaged in the seizure of the offices of the World and the Journal of Commerce.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, yesterday, Mr. Morgan introduced a bill to prohibit the release of drafted men from the draft by the payment of money. The bill relative to the naval supplies was taken up, and Mr. Grimes addressed the House for over two hours, in answer to the adverse report made thereon by the Naval Committee. Mr. Hale and Mr. Davis also spoke at length on the same subject. The Pacific Railroad Bill was passed as amended, by a vote of 23 ayes against 5 nays.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. Dawes reported a resolution that Messrs. Chandler, Segar, and Kitchen, whose claims to seats from Virginia have been rejected, be allowed millage for one session, and monthly pay till the passage of the resolutions in their respective cases. The resolution was amended by striking out Mr. Chandler's name, and was adopted as amended. On motion of Mr. Coffrath it was resolved that the Senate concurring, that both Houses adjourn the session on the 7th of June, at noon. A resolution was adopted declaring as the sense of the House, that forgetting all past differences, it is the duty of Congress to sustain the constitutional authorities of the country in their endeavors to suppress the rebellion. A resolution was offered requesting the President to inform the House whether the suspension of the publication of the World and Journal of Commerce was by order of the Government; the resolution was laid over. Mr. Pruyn asked leave to introduce a resolution condemning the action of the Government in the matter of the suspension of the same journals, which was denied. Mr. Pruyn asked permission to print the statement proposed by himself in relation to the said suppression, which was objected to by Mr. Wilson. A resolution was adopted instructing the Committee of the Judiciary to inquire what legislation was necessary to punish the forgery and publication of official documents. A resolution relative to the Mexican question was passed unanimously. The joint resolution providing that the late law for the temporary increase on duties shall take place on the 30th of April, was passed. The bill relative to the railroad from Lake Superior to Puget Sound was recommitted to the Special Committee. The Appropriation Bill was taken up, and argued at length.

GENERAL NEWS.

Under date of Spottsylvania, May 17, Gen. O. B. Willcox, of Gen. Burnside's Corps, telegraphed to Gov. Blair, of Michigan: "The Michigan regiments of this Division have been engaged in several skirmishes and three general engagements. They have all done well, some of them splendidly. Their losses, since crossing the Rapidan to this date, have been: Killed, 161; wounded, 722; missing, 540; total loss, 1,423. Will you please use every measure in your power to hurry up all reinforcements to these regiments. I think we are on the high road to success."

A dispatch to a Toronto paper, dated at Clifton, Canada, May 20, states that the wife of Mr. Geo. Bender, one of the oldest citizens of that place, while laboring under a fit of insanity, left her home about 10 o'clock on the morning of May 20, unobserved by the family, and threw herself into the river a short distance above Table Rock, and was carried over the Falls. An attempt was made to rescue her by parties who happened to be near, but it was unsuccessful. One of the parties seized her shawl, which was left in his hands.

The London Star of May 10 states that the case of the Confederates charged with piracy came before the Court of Queen's Bench on the day preceding. Mr. Edward James had applied for a writ of habeas corpus on behalf of these men, and Mr. Lush showed cause against the rule. After hearing the arguments, the court made the rule absolute.

Confederate prisoners to the number of nearly one thousand arrived in Louisville, from Nashville, on Thursday evening. They were captured by Gen. Sherman's army.

Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana, has issued a long address to his constituents, declaring that he will not again be a candidate for reëlection to Congress. Personal and not political motives, he says, prompt him to this determination.

The statement that the boiler of the double-ender gunboat Lenapee burst while undergoing the cold water test at Newburgh, is authoritatively denied.

Neither Board of the Common Council had a quorum yesterday. The Aldermen stand adjourned without day, and the Councilmen are adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M. on Thursday.

In the Court of Sessions, yesterday, the case of Luther C. Tibbetts, indicted for a felonious assault upon the Janitor of the Corn Exchange Rooms, was postponed until September next, on affidavits showing that Mr. Tibbetts was too ill to proceed to trial. Giovanni Lagermonicini, an Italian, charged with grand larceny, was tried and acquitted. George West was tried and convicted of stealing a gold watch, which he snatched from the pocket of a gentleman in the Bowery. His Honor sentenced him to five years' confinement in the State Prison.

The case of Cooke, the "Bounty Broker," was yesterday argued on appeal at General Term of the Supreme Court, counsel for the prisoner contending that the indictment stated no offence. A singular, if not a forcible point made, was that the prisoner was convicted not on the evidence, but by and on account of public prejudice, and in obedience to newspaper clamor.

At a circuit of the Supreme Court, before Justice Foster, a case is on trial between Ex-Gov. Price, of New-Jersey, and Maj.-Gen. Erasmus D. Keyes and others, in which the plaintiff charges the defendants with a conspiracy to defraud him of certain property in California in 1851. The case is still on, and will occupy much time in its trial. It is noted in the law column.

The Stock market was generally dull yesterday. The closing prices on the Railways lower than on Saturday. Gold also a fraction lower. Money easy. Government stocks steady.

The Cattle Market at Forty-fourth-street is lightly supplied with bullocks, but little over 2,900 being on sale. Prices continue about the same as last week. At the extravagant figures now ruling for beef cattle, buyers are slow to purchase. Notwithstanding the limited supply yesterday, the market was but moderately active, and sellers were firmer. Beeves were generally selling at 15c.@17c.; extra cattle at 18c., on estimated dressed weights. The receipts of sheep are moderate; prices materially advanced; wool-sheep rating at 12c.@13½c.—a few reported at 13¾c. ℔ lb. live-weight; shorn, at 10c.@11c.

Breadstuffs were freely offered and were quiet yesterday, at generally reduced prices. The principal movements in Provisions were in Pork, especially new mess, which was actively dealt in at higher rates. Groceries were quiet. Tallow and Petroleum in good demand. Whisky heavy and drooping. Cotton unsettled. The Freight engagements were moderate.

The Campaign in Georgia.

In the absorbing interest of the campaign in Virginia, the public are almost overlooking a brilliant advance of the Union armies toward a point which last year we should have considered equal in importance to Richmond itself—Atlanta. It is well understood that Gen. Sherman began his movement from Chattanooga with a force so imposing and of such excellent fighting quality that nothing in the Southwestern rebel States could be expected to withstand it for a week. The positions held by the different portions of Johnston's army were exceedingly strong, being often mountain passes where every advantage of nature was on their side. But the great superiority of number with Sherman enabled him to make flank movements with as heavy force as he kept in front of the enemy, and he has thus succeeded in turning all their positions in the mountains, and has now reached that part of the uplands of Georgia, where the country is open and rolling, and not so easily defended by small bodies of men.

On Friday he was at Etowah River, within forty-five miles of Atlanta; in a few days he will probably attack the fortified positions which the enemy have been constructing with such care around that important strategic point. He will undoubtedly capture Atlanta, though after severe fighting, and thus hold the most valuable workshops, and the most vital railroad connection in the whole South. Nothing could more effectually cut the Confederacy in two, though the rebels will still have a roundabout connection between Alabama and Virginia, by a more southerly route. To occupy Atlanta would be, in effect, to occupy Georgia, the richest of the rebel States, the want of whose supplies, as has been acknowledged by the Richmond Enquirer, would break up their great armies in Virginia. No other State is materially so important for the Confederacy, and the weakness, as well as the desperation, of the rebel leaders, is shown in nothing more than in their thus giving up Georgia to reinforce the Army of Virginia. With Georgia occupied and raided over by our troops, even a doubtful campaign in Virginia would, by the Autumn, leave Lee's army broken up, through want of supplies.

There is another important element in this Georgia campaign which has not been much considered. All the most valuable negro population of the Confederate States is believed to be now concentrated in Georgia and South Carolina. It is supposed that two millions of slaves have been sent to these two States, to be far from Northern depredations and from all inducements to run away. These must represent 300,000 or 400,000 fighting men. When Sherman breaks into these communities, there will be an exodus into his lines from the whole country around, such as has not been seen since the beginning of the war. If he has the arms he can at once equip a vast body of fresh regiments who will be able to do excellent service in guarding his immense lines of communications, leaving his veterans for distant and more important movements.

And here we touch Sherman's real difficulty, which has been hinted at in the Government dispatches, his distance from his bases. With any other General the difficulty would be enormous, for in certain seasons his primary base is Louisville, more than 500 miles away, and his secondary bases are now Nashville and Chattanooga, from which last he is 100 miles distant. But Sherman is understood to be one of those who believe that "war should support war." He has possession now of the richest wheat region of the whole South, which has been little plundered or wasted on either side. Between Atlanta and the mountains, he has a country from which he could easily feed his army for months, if he levy his contributions. Johnston, with his usual skill, has slowly retreated, apparently avoiding a decisive battle, which would be his ruin, and reserving his forces to worry and annoy Sherman's lines and cut off his supplies.

What will be Sherman's movements beyond Atlanta, is difficult to divine. With the hot weather approaching and the immense difficulties of his long lines, we doubt whether he does more than to sweep over the State, break up railroads, free slaves and cut off the connection between the east and west of the Confederacy. If, however, Johnston should be beguiled into a battle, and utterly defeated, the whole problem would be different, and we might see movements by Sherman's army, greater than any even he has yet attempted.

The Suspended Journals.

It was very well for the French philosopher to say that "there is no mischance which a clever man may not turn to his advantage;" but there are mischances which no man, with a sense of justice and propriety, would attempt so to convert. If the predicament came from carelessness, and had inflicted injury upon others, only an ignoble nature could seek to make capital of it. A true man will always feel cheap over a blunder that has cost others dear, and, in no circumstances, will make an ado about it for his own profit.

The Journal of Commerce and the World yesterday signalized the resumption of their issues by long-winded tirades against the President for taking them in hand because of their publication of the bogus proclamation. The Journal pitches its dudgeon in a lower key than the other, and affects a certain sort of magnanimity. It says: "It is not we that have been harmed so much as he [the President] who so fiercely struck at us. We are grieved for him. He has withdrawn his grasp, and we are again free. And now for the private wrong done us, we find it in our hearts to forgive him." The World, in a letter to the President, over the signature of its editor, which in itself is contrary to all good taste—and looks like coxcombry—tries to rail and threaten in the "'Ercles vein." Through three columns it tears passion to tatters. It screams about the theory that the King can do no wrong, about Charles I., about "impeachment, trial, conviction, and judgment," about the shock to the public mind, the amazement of every honest and patriotic citizen, the indignation and alarm of every pure and loyal breast; about the immeasurable infamy of the act; about attempting to crush the organs of free discussion, making free elections impossible, and breaking down all the safeguards of representative government; about judges intimidated by threats or bribed by the allurements of favor; a craven Congress, sitting silent and idly watching the perishing liberties of the people, and launches at the devoted head of the President this terrible fulmination: "Do not imagine, Sir, that the Governor of this State has forgotten to do his duty; do not imagine that the people of this City or State or country have ceased to love their liberties, or do not know how to protect their rights. It would be fatal to a tyrant to commit that error here and now. A free people can at need devise means to teach their Chief Magistrate the same lesson."

> "This man was Pickwick—Pickwick the defendant," said Mr. Sergeant Buzfuz, and with a tremendous emphasis smote his table with a mighty sound. All is gloom and silence in the house; even the voice of her child is hushed; his infant sports are disregarded when his mother weeps; his 'alley-tors' and his 'commoneys' are alike neglected; he forgets his long familiar cry of knuckle down and of tip cheese or odd and even; his hand is out. But Pickwick, gentlemen, Pickwick, the ruthless destroyer of his domestic oasis in the desert of Goswell-street—Pickwick who has choked up the well and thrown ashes on this sward—Pickwick who comes before you to-day with his heartless tomato sauce and warming pans—Pickwick still rises his head with unblushing effrontery, and gazes without a sigh on the ruin he has made. Damages, gentlemen, heavy damages, is the only punishment with which you can visit him; the only recompense you can award to my client. And for these damages she now appeals to an enlightened, a high-minded, a right feeling, a conscientious, a dispassionate, a sympathizing, a contemplative jury of her civilized countrymen."

Well, it is all laughable. We can't say which is the most so—the caudal clemency of the Journal, or the climacteric craze of the World. But, for the credit of the New-York press, we wish that the matter had been met more sensibly. We have freely said, that in our opinion the Administration made a mistake in suspending the two papers. The proceeding, if instituted at all, ought to have been personal only, because the suspension of a newspaper involves great injury to property, and is of itself in the nature of a punishment, whereas punishment should never precede trial. But the pretensions which these two papers set up we will never admit for an instant. Their plea that there is "no newspaper in the country but would have been deceived as we were," is false. The Times had that proclamation given it in exactly the same manner as they, and yet was not deceived. It suspected the spuriousness of the production before five lines of it were read, was entirely convinced by the time the reading was completed. It made that assurance doubly sure by sending at once to the telegraph office and ascertaining that nothing of the kind had come through that channel. What was done by the Times might have been done by any of our cotemporaries, with competent men in their editorial rooms. The Journal, to meet this, pleads that it had no man in its editorial rooms, and that the foreman of its printing-rooms, as usual, in such cases, gave the copy out without reading it. The plea is an insult to the business habits of this City. No business house could keep public confidence for a day if it should intrust its most important acts to a subordinate who should "go it blind" in that fashion for one minute of the day. The pretence, too, that it was a specious counterfeit that might deceive any one, is absurd. No man in this country writes a more unique and unmistakable style than Abraham Lincoln. Never was there a coarser and more palpable counterfeit of a bank bill than this counterfeit of one of the President's official documents. The editor, who is supposed to know the marks which make style, stultifies himself by affirming that the style of that document had any resemblance to Mr. Lincoln's. A bank teller would be instantly dismissed who should accredit a forgery so clumsy. The publication of that counterfeit was not from accident, but the grossest carelessness. Had we been guilty of it, we should have deemed the Government perfectly right in calling us to personal account for it. An editor is personally responsible for whatever appears in his paper, whether through design or negligence. If he thus accredits and gives currency to a forgery, he ought to answer for it in court. If the forgery was one of a military order, as was here the case, he must expect to be tried by a military court, in accordance with the army regulations, which are a part of the law of the land. In view of the tremendous power the press has for harm, we accept that responsibility as just, and cheerfully abide by it. No right-minded editor will complain of it; least of all at a time when such awful issues are in suspense, which forged proclamations and bulletins may most seriously affect. If there be any portion of the press who spurn this responsibility, we trust that the Government will strictly hold them to it, but by a wiser method than that just employed. The national interests are not to be placed at the mercy of the irresponsible carelessness, or malice, of either editors or any other men. It is an indignity to the press to claim any such immunity in its favor; and the public are now treating such claims with just the contempt they deserve.

The Bogus Proclamation.—We have no wish to prolong the controversy as to the responsibility of those newspapers which published the bogus proclamation. But we see it diligently asserted in various quarters, and dwelt on with emphasis in the World and Journal of Commerce, that it was put in type in all the offices to which it was sent, and that accident alone prevented its appearance in some of them.

This is utterly incorrect. It was never put in type in the Times Office, nor was it sent into the composing room, nor was there any thought, on the part of the Editor in charge, of giving it insertion. His perusal of the first ten lines was sufficient to awaken suspicion of its character, and a very little inquiry settled the point. So far as this office was concerned "accident" had nothing whatever to do with it. The document was not published, simply because its character was detected. The office is always open—day and night—and whatever is published passes first under the inspection of some person deemed competent to judge of its character. It is not, of course, impossible that he should be deceived: all we mean to say is that we take all precautions possible against the admission of false and injurious matter, and in this instance the non-appearance of the forged proclamation in our columns was due, solely and exclusively, to those precautions.

No Difference After All.—The Tribune concedes that there was an "understanding" come to between Gen. McClellan and Gen. Buckner, as to the neutrality of Kentucky, in June, 1861; but it objects, with what seems to us superfluous and slightly absurd tenacity, to having it styled, as Mr. Raymond styles it in his book, an "agreement." Very well. This is a matter of very small importance; and we presume that Mr. Raymond would have no special objection to substituting the one word for the other in that paragraph, which has developed in the Tribune so much new-born zeal on behalf of Gen. McClellan. The Tribune says it would have "felt constrained to protest, promptly and peremptorily, [against] any such 'agreement,' had it come to our knowledge at the time." We do not doubt it.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST.

Admiral Porter's Fleet Out of Red River—Alexandria Evacuated by Gen. Banks—Political Movements in Louisiana—A Delegation to the Baltimore Convention Appointed.

Cairo, Monday, May 22.

Admiral Porter's flagship has arrived at Mound City. She reports that the entire fleet is out of the Red River, the "dam" having reached a height on the 13th inst. that enabled them to move.

An extensive conflagration recently occurred at Natchez, consuming several blocks of most princely buildings. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

The steamer Mollie Able, No. 17, arrived here this evening.

Our forces evacuated Alexandria last week and moved toward Sellsport.

The officers of the steamer Laurel Hill, which had arrived at New-Orleans, state they distinctly heard cannonading from the direction our forces had taken.

Admiral Porter's fleet was greatly annoyed in passing out of the Red River by the rebel guerrillas, who lined the banks of the river between Alexandria and Fort de Russey.

A portion of Alexandria was burning when the Laurel Hill left. This steamer had two hundred sick on board, and, while flying hospital flags, was fired into, ten miles below Alexandria. No injury, however, resulted from the firing. Gen. McClernand, who was seriously ill, was on board.

At the time the steamer City Belle was captured and burned by the rebels, thirty miles below Alexandria, in the early part of the month, Col. Mott, of the One Hundred and Forty-ninth Ohio, was killed. Many other officers of rank were also killed, and the greater portion of the troops were slaughtered, of whom there were 500 on board.

Fourteen delegates to represent the State of Louisiana in the Baltimore Convention were elected by the State Convention.

The Delta says the action by the convention was harmonious, every member indorsing the general policy, both civil and military, of the Administration. They also approved the military and civil career of Gen. Banks and the policy inaugurated by Gov. Hahn, as tending to putting down the rebellion and for the restoration of the Union.

The steamship Cassandra, from Boston, had arrived.

Late intelligence from Matamoras represent things as being in a very unsettled state, the bad feeling existing between the native and French residents had ripened to an actual outbreak. Gen. Cortenas and staff, while riding through the streets, were insulted by the Frenchmen. A general quarrel ensued, weapons were drawn and freely used by both parties. Gen. Cortenas' Adjutant-General, during the mêlée, shot one Frenchman dead, and another was arrested and subsequently executed on the next day by Cortenas. Much excitement prevailed, and many of the French residents were leaving the city.

DISPATCH FROM ADMIRAL PORTER.

The following dispatch was received at the Navy Department this morning:

Mississippi Squadron, Flagship Black Hawk,
Mouth of the Red River,
via Cairo, May 22.

Hon. G. Welles, Secretary of the Navy:

I have the honor to inform you that the portions of the squadron caught above the Falls, at Alexandria, have been relieved from their unpleasant position, owing to the indefatigable exertions of Lieut.-Col. Barney, Acting Engineer of the Nineteenth Army Corps, who proposed and built a tree dam of six hundred feet across the river at the lower Falls, which enabled all the vessels to pass over in safety, the backwater of the Mississippi reaching Alexandria.

Your obedient servant,
DAVID D. PORTER, Rear-Admiral.

THE FORGED PROCLAMATION.

Gov. Seymour Orders the Indictment of all Engaged in the Seizure of the Journal of Commerce and the World.

Albany, Sunday, May 22.

Gov. Seymour has written a letter to the District-Attorney of New-York, directing him to procure indictments against all who were engaged in the seizure of the offices of the Journal of Commerce and the New-York World.

Obituary.

DEATH OF LIEUT.-COL TYLER, SECOND VERMONT VOLUNTEERS.

This gallant officer died yesterday morning at the Metropolitan Hotel in this City, of a wound received at the battle of the Wilderness. Col. Tyler enlisted in his regiment as a private at the beginning of the war, and rose to the rank he held before he was twenty-one years old. He was brave almost to a fault, and actuated by the noblest patriotism in the performance of his duty. He leaves a large number of warm friends to mourn his loss. His body was yesterday taken to Brattleboro', Vt., where the last tribute of respect to the gallant soldier's remains will be paid.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TIMES.

Washington, Monday, May 23.

CAPTURE OF GUERRILLAS.

Forty guerrillas were taken at White Oak Church, half way between Fredericksburgh and Belle Plain, to-day. The cars are running from Aquia Creek. The wounded will be speedily brought back.

THE SALARY OF THE U. S. TREASURER.

The House, to-day, in a freak of economy, refused to agree to the Senate proposition to make the salary of Gen. Spinner, Treasurer of the United States, equal to that of the Sub-Treasurer of New-York.

THE TAX BILL.

The Senate will to-morrow attack the Tax Bill, and continue its consideration to the exclusion of other business, till it is passed. The Finance Committee express the hope that it can be disposed of by the 1st of June.

SUITS GROWING OUT OF GOLD SPECULATIONS.

Judge Wylie, of the District Supreme Court, in his charge to the jury to-day, in a suit against certain brokers, growing out of gold speculations, held that such operations are contrary to public policy, and that the plaintiff in such suits, can neither recover profits made on former gold speculations and remaining in the hands of the defendants, or moneys deposited with them as margin or collateral security under contracts for the purchase of gold. Plaintiff's counsel said that he considered the instructions of his Honor taking the case from the jury, by practically confiscating for the use of the defendents the moneys placed in their hands by plaintiff, as profits on or securities for purchases of gold made by defendants, as the plaintiff's brokers. As this was the pioneer decision in America, annulling such contracts, they meant to take exceptions and carry the case up on appeal.

ONE-YEAR TROOPS—THE COMMUTATION CLAUSE.

The Senate Committee on Military Affairs had a special meeting to-day for the purpose of considering the proposition of Senator Wilson to allow the President to call out volunteers for a less period than three years. The bill before the committee fixes the period at one year. The committee have also under consideration a proposition to repeal the three hundred dollar exemption clause. The opinion gains strength with many Senators that unless that clause is repealed, the Government will not get in the next draft the requisite number of men.

THE ARKANSAS MEMBERS.

The persons claiming seats in the House from Arkansas, will state to the Election Committee to-morrow that these men cast at their elections in the First District about 5,000 votes, Second District, 3,000, and Third District, 2,000.

CAPTURE OF A REBEL MAIL.

The Government secret police have intercepted a rebel mail going from Richmond to Baltimore. Among the letters thus taken were some to important personages in New-York and Philadelphia, and their contents implicate a number of others.

THE TREASURY INVESTIGATION.

The Treasury Investigation thus far results in the complete vindication of the Department. The committee is now engaged in charges involving the moral character of the Superintendent of Public Printing and one or two subordinates.

AN EXCEPTION.

Chandler, of Norfolk, is made exception to the resolution paying mileage to claimants to seats in the House from various districts in Virginia, for the reason that he was holding another office under the Government while prosecuting his claim.

RECONSTRUCTION.

The whole subject of policy of reconstruction began under the President's sanction. Several rebel States will soon be brought up in both Houses on the question of admitting Senators and Representatives from Arkansas. The House Election Committee will hear claimants to-morrow.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

Winter Davis' resolution calling for the explanations which the French official organ says the Emperor has received from the Government concerning the recent House resolution about French interference in Mexico passed unanimously. It derives its chief significance from the fact that the dates show that any explanation really was offered. It must have been volunteered before the French Government had time to ask for it.

THE NAVAL SQUABBLE.

The irrepressible conflict between Senators Grimes and Hale on naval matters broke out in the Senate again to-day—Grimes attacking and Hale defending the course of the navy agents in furnishing supplies. It is worthy of notice that although defending the management in other places, Hale made no allusion to New-York.

THE INDEPENDENT TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

The Independent Telegraph Company received a letter from Secretary Stanton this evening, freeing their offices from arrest, and assuring them that they were fully exonerated from any charge of connection with the transmission or publication of the forged proclamation.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, Monday, May 23.

THE NAVAL ACADEMY.

The annual examination of the Naval Academy commenced on the 20th inst. The following are the Board of Visitors: Commodores John Marston and John Rodgers, and Capt. Pickering, U.S.N.; Henry Barnard, of Connecticut; James A. Hamilton, of New-York; G. A. Parks, of Illinois; John W. Harris, of Missouri, and C. D. Robinson, of Wisconsin.

NAVIGATION OF THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

It is reported that the gunboats of the Potomac flotilla have removed all the obstructions in the Rappahannock River.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

Washington, Monday, May 23.

IMPORTANT TO DRAFTED MEN—THE COMMUTATION CLAUSE.

Mr. Morgan, of New-York, (Union,) introduced a bill to prohibit the release of drafted men from draft by the payment of money, viz.: "That so much of the act entitled 'An act for enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes,' approved March 3, 1863, and acts amendatory thereof, as authorizes the discharge of any person from military service, by reason of the payment of $300 for the procuration of a substitute or otherwise, be and the same is hereby repealed—provided that nothing contained in this act shall be construed to alter the provisions of the existing laws relative to persons actually furnishing substitutes."

NAVAL SUPPLIES.

On motion of Mr. Grimes, of Iowa, (Union,) his bill in relation to the naval supplies was taken up, and he addressed the Senate for over two hours in answer to the adverse report made thereon by the Naval Committee. He gave a history of the manner of obtaining naval supplies since the organization of the navy to show that under navy agents, who originally were not legally authorized officers, a system had grown up by collusion with contractors and master-workmen, and that the system proposed by his bill would remedy these abuses. He defended the Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks for his efforts in detecting the defects of the old system. He held that the subordinates, and not the department were in fault. He analyzed certain contracts heretofore made under bids for supplies, showing as examples, instances where Scotch iron has been bid for at one dollar per ton and American iron at twenty and thirty-six dollars per ton, and of the large amount advertised of the former only nine or ten tons were delivered, while of the latter double or treble the amount would be furnished and received. The low figure at which Scotch iron was furnished, the contractors knowing by collusion beforehand what amount would be required, were thus enabled to secure the contract against honest men by reason of their aggregate bid under the contract system being less. He contended that these things showed collusion between contractors and the employes of the Government. He mentioned among these contractors Smith, Brothers & Co., of Boston, who had, since 1861, furnished to the amount of $1,010,900; Scofield & Co., of New-York, to about a similar sum, and another firm in New-Hampshire to the amount of $1,362,652; also, Joseph L. Savage, of Washington, items in the latter's bill to the Navy-yard amounting in the aggregate to $4,687, he being the lowest bidder of those whom Mr. Grimes presumed to be merely his confederates. The price of the articles furnished were double their value; as for instance, axes at $1 50, the market price of which was seventy-five cents; and many other articles in proportion. Mr. Grimes showed also from their books, that Scofield & Co., now under court-martial, that in September last, they had furnished brass screws costing $1,400 at $6,780, and 48 sheets of copper, costing $123 at $4,034 50, leather costing $1,866 at $6,643, &c., &c.

Mr. Grimes explained at length the necessity of his bill to remedy these abuses. He said it would provide that these matters of supply would be confined to regular officers of the navy instead of temporary political appointees, and prescribed such severe punishment and penalties as would diminish to a larger extent the corruptions and frauds which were now practiced.

Mr. Hale, of New-Hampshire, (Union,) agreed with the Senator from Iowa entirely, that the frauds and gross outrages perpetrated upon the Navy Department were enormous; but the difference between him and the Senator as to the responsibility was great. He had no idea that the sweeping charges made by the Senator against navy agents and workingmen, whom he proposes by one fell blow to sweep from the navy, were true. This assault on the navy agents and master workmen and mechanics was solely because they had in many instances protected the Government from the attempts at fraud on the part of those who were partisans of the heads of the bureau in the Navy Department, who sought to be enriched at the public expense. He instanced cases where navy agents had, while endeavoring to protect the Government from fraud on the part of favorites of the heads of bureaus, incurred their displeasure. One case in point was the supplying of the shaft of the steamer Cambridge, at the Charlestown Navy-Yard, when the Navy Agent refused to pay the enormous price of seventy cents per pound when everybody knew it could be purchased for fifty. Mr. Hale, in defending the firm of Smith, Brothers & Co., said that they had been among the first to expose the manner in which frauds were perpetrated upon the Government. The Committee of Naval Affairs, in discharging their duty, had come to the conclusion, after partial investigation, that this bill, though containing many excellent features, was, upon the whole, at this time unwise and inexpedient. They regarded it as an endeavor to cut off from the public service, and pass sentence of condemnation upon those who are the most faithful officers in the United States service, though they were not epauletted gentlemen. He had as high regard for naval officers as the Senator. He thought them, as a class, as honest and upright as any other officers; but he was opposed to the wholesale onslaught on the mechanics of the country, who had shed so much blood and performed so much labor in defence of the national life. He considered the bill itself a standing libel against the honesty of our hardy sons of toil. He hoped the Senator would press his investigations until every rogue, and every one who connived at fraud and corruption, would be brought to condign punishment; but, after all, he would find that the guilty culprits were elsewhere.

Mr. Sumner, of Massachusetts, (Union,) wished to say a word in defence of a citizen of Massachusetts, who had been assailed.

Mr. Conness, of California, (Union,) and Mr. Davis, both objected.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD BILL.

The consideration of the Pacific Railroad Bill was then resumed, and Mr. Doolittle, after a brief reference to the pending amendment fixing the route of the road through Kansas, recurred to the naval supply subject.

Mr. Conness asked what they had to do with the railroad.

Mr. Doolittle said the gentleman was out of order interrupting him, and went on to say that he had been engaged for weeks as a member of the Naval Committee, in connection with the Senator from New-Hampshire, on the subject of fraud and corruption in the Navy Department. He had listened to his speech to-day, and yet he had not heard him mention a guilty man implicated in these outrageous transactions. Why did not the Senator name one man? Because, as he (Mr. Doolittle,) undertook emphatically to say, there was no man in the Navy Department, no head of a bureau, no clerk who was guilty of fraud or corruption, as he would see when the evidence was presented.

The other amendments of the Pacific Railroad Bill were discussed by various Senators.

The bill, as amended, was then passed by a vote of 23 ayes against 5 nays. It goes to the House.

At 5:45 o'clock the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington, Monday, May 23.

MILEAGE FOR UNSEATED MEMBERS.

Mr. Dawes, of Massachusetts, (Union,) from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution that Messrs. Chandler, Segar, and Kitchen, whose claims to seats from Virginia have been rejected, be allowed mileage for one session, and monthly pay till the passage of the resolutions in their respectiv cases. Mr. Dawes said that Mr. Chandler is District-Attorney in the Eastern District of Virginia, but receives no salary, his compensation being paid in fees amounting to probably $2,500 per annum.

Mr. Chandler's name was stricken out. The resolution, as thus amended, was adopted by a majority of three.

On motion of Mr. Coffroth, of Pennsylvania, (Dem.,) it was resolved that, the Senate concurring, both Houses adjourn the session on the 6th of June at noon.

PATRIOTIC LEGISLATION.

Mr. Kinney, Delegate from Utah, offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, declaring as the sense of this House that the present crisis in this causeless and unjustifiable rebellion calls loudly on Congress for united and patriotic legislation; that the self-sacrificing services of our soldiers, unsurpassed in ancient or modern warfare, should be sustained in the field, and are entitled to our thanks; and, forgetting all past differences, it is the duty of Congress to sustain the constitutional authorities of the country in their endeavors to suppress the rebellion.

THE SUSPENSION OF THE NEW-YORK JOURNALS.

Mr. Grinnell, of Iowa, (Union,) offered a resolution, requesting the President to inform the House whether, by order of the Government, the publication of the World and Journal of Commerce, of New-York, was suspended, and if so, such order and proceeding be communicated. An objection being made, the resolution lies over.

THE FORGERY OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS.

On motion of Mr. Arnold, of Illinois, (Union,) a resolution was introduced, which was adopted, instructing the Committee of the Judiciary to inquire whether and what legislation is necessary to punish the forgery and publication of official documents, and also what legislation is necessary to punish those who, through the press, or otherwise, give information, aid and comfort to the rebels.

THE MEETINGS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. Hubbard, of Iowa, (Union,) offered a resolution providing that the House meet daily at 11 instead of 12 o'clock.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, (Union,) objected, saying that we have too much time already.

On motion of Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, (Dem.,) the resolution was tabled—91 against 20.

THE SUPPRESSED NEWSPAPERS AGAIN.

Mr. Pruyn, of New-York, (Dem.,) asked leave, on behalf of his friends of the New-York Delegation, to offer a resolution. He would, with the kind permission of the House, like to say a few words in explanation of the reasons which induced them to request action by this body.

The resolution was then read for the information of the House, and is as follows:

Resolved, That the conduct of the Executive authority of the Government in closing the offices and suppressing the publication of the World and Journal of Commerce, newspapers in the City of New-York, under the circumstances which have been placed before the public, was an act unwarranted in itself, dangerous to the cause of the Union, in violation of the Constitution, and subversive of the principles of civil liberty, and as such is hereby censured by this House.

Objection being made, Mr. Pruyn moved a suspension of the rules, in order that he might introduce the resolution, but the question was decided in the negative by the following vote: yeas 54, nays 57.

Yeas—Messrs. J. C. Allen, Baldwin of Michigan, Bliss, Brooks, Brown of Wisconsin, Chanler, Coffroth, Cox, Dawson, Dennison, Eden, Edgarton, Eldridge, Finck, Grider, Harding, Harris of Illinois, Herrick, Holman, Hutchins, Johnson of Pennsylvania, Johnson of Ohio, Kalbfleisch, Kernan, King, Knapp, Law, Lazear, Mallory, Marcy, McAllister, McDowell, Miller of Pennsylvania, Morrison, Nelson, Noble, O'Neill of Ohio, [illegible], Pruyn, Radford, Randall of Pennsylvania, [illegible], Rollins of Missouri, Ross, Scott, Steele of New-York, Steele of New-Jersey, Strouse, Voorhees, Wadsworth, Ward, Wheeler, J. W. White, Fernando Wood—64.

NAYS—Messrs. Alley, Ames, Arnold, Baldwin of Massachusetts, Baxter, Beaman, Blair of West Virginia, Blow, Boutwell, Boyd, Broomall, Brown of West Virginia, A. W. Clark, F. Clark, Cobb, Cole, Creswell, Davis of Maryland, Davis of New-York, Dawes, Deming, Dixon, Donnelly, Driggs, Eckley, Eliot, Farnsworth, Garfield, Gooch, Grinnell, Higby, Hooper, Hotchkiss, Hubbard of Iowa, Ingersoll, Jenckes, Julian, Kelley, Kellogg of Michigan, Loan, Longyear, Marvin, McBride, McClurg, Miller of New-York, Moorhead, Morrill, Amos Myers, Leonard Myers, O'Neill of Pennsylvania, Orth, Patterson, Perham, Pike, Pomeroy, Price, Randall of Kentucky, Rice of Maine, Rollins of New-Hampshire, Schenck, Scofield, Shannon, Sloan, Smith, Smithers, Spaulding, Stevens, Thayer, Thomas, Upson, Washburne of Illinois, Washburne of Massachusetts, Webster, Whaley, Williams, Wilder, Wilson, Windom, Woodbridge—79.

THE MEXICAN QUESTION.

Mr. DAVIS, of Maryland, (Union,) offered the following:

Whereas, The following announcement appeared in the Moniteur, the French official organ, namely: "The Emperor's Government has received from that of the United States satisfactory evidence of the sense and bearing of the resolution of the House of Representatives at Washington relative to Mexico, and it is known, besides, that the Senate has indefinitely postponed an examination of the question, which in any case, the Executive would not have sanctioned," therefore,

Resolved, That the President communicate to this House, if not inconsistent with the public interests, any explanation given by the Government of the United States to France, relative to the bearing and sense of the resolution relative to Mexico, which unanimously passed the House on the 4th of April, 1864.

The resolution was passed almost unanimously, under a suspension of the rules.

THE LATE INCREASE OF TARIFF.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) reported the joint explanatory resolution, which was passed, providing that the late law for the temporary increase on duties and imports shall take effect on the 30th instead of the 29th of April. All duties improperly paid to be refunded.

THE RECENT INCREASE OF THE TARIFF.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported a joint resolution amendatory of the joint resolution to increase temporarily the duties on imports, approved April 29, as follows:

Whereas, The joint resolution of Congress entitled "A joint resolution to increase temporarily the duties on imports," was approved by the President on the 29th of April, at thirty minutes past 7 o'clock P. M., but was not promulgated until the day following, to wit, April 30, 1864; therefore,

Resolved, That the resolution shall not be deemed to have taken effect until the said 30th day of April, 1864, and the said resolution shall not be construed to include the goods in public store or bonded warehouse, or bonded for warehousing or transportation prior to the said 30th day of April, 1864, and any duties which may have been exacted and received contrary to the provisions of this resolution shall be refunded.

Mr. BROOKS, of New-York, (Dem.,) said he was glad this resolution had been reported as a matter of justice. The necessity for the explanatory resolution showed the hurried mode of legislation. Something done on one Monday had to be corrected on another Monday.

The joint resolution was passed under the operation of the previous question.

THE SUPPRESSED JOURNALS ONCE MORE.

Mr. PRUYN, of New-York, (Dem.,) asked permission to print the statement proposed by himself on behalf of the opposition members from New-York State, in relation to the suppression of the World and Journal of Commerce.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, (Union,) objected.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) said he had no objection to publishing the statement in the New-York papers.

Mr. KERNAN, of New-York, (Dem.,) remarked that for doing so the newspapers might be suppressed.

RAILROAD FROM LAKE SUPERIOR TO PUGETS SOUND.

Mr. STEVENS, on leave, reported a bill to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from Lake Superior to Pugets Sound by the Northern route.

The bill was ordered to be printed, and recommitted to the Special Committee.

THE APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House considered various Senate amendments to the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation Bill.

During the proceedings,

Mr. HOLMAN, of Indiana, (Dem.,) opposed the amendment increasing the salary of the Treasurer of the United States to $6,000 per annum.

Mr. KASSON, of Iowa, (Union,) said the gentleman's remarks were buncomb—not calculated for effect in this House, but to be read elsewhere.

Mr. HOLMAN replied that if the gentleman was of that opinion, he was certainly laboring under a great delusion.

Mr. NELSON, of New-York, (Dem.,) sent up to be read an extract concerning the Fremont campaign and Gen. SPINNER.

Mr. KELLEY, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) wished to know what book it was. Extracts had heretofore been read from it which were replete with falsehood and slanders of patriotic men. He asked for the name of the book.

Mr. COX, of Ohio, (Dem.,) in reply, said it was the "Logic of History," containing 500 political texts, and he then read from it some remarks of that gentleman about the war, and commented upon them in ridicule.

The amendment to increase the United States Treasurer from $5,000 to $6,000, was rejected—37 against 77.

Among the amendments agreed to was one appropriating $5,000 for the salary of two additional Appraisers at the port of New-York.

At a quarter past 4 the House adjourned.

NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES.

THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES is published THIS MORNING, and may be had at the counter of the publication office in wrappers ready for mailing. Price FIVE CENTS. In addition to the latest intelligence by telegraph up to the moment of going to press, there will be found in the current number full details of all military movements in the different departments from the pens of our special correspondents. Also, all official orders, reports and documents, and the latest and fullest Washington news, European news, with graphic letters from our correspondents in London and Paris, giving the tone of public feeling abroad, is made a special and permanent feature. In addition to Editorials on all the current topics of the day, the SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES has a page of carefully prepared commercial matter, giving the latest financial news and market reports: items of agricultural and domestic interest, compiled from sources many of which are otherwise inaccessible to the American reader; and marriages and deaths of the week.

The "SEMI-WEEKLY RECORD," or news summary—being a careful synopsis and digest of the news of the day, both rebellion and general—is alone worth double the subscription price to the paper, as it preserves in a condensed and conveniently classified form all news of interest, and must prove valuable as a record to all time.

TERMS.—One copy one year, $3; two copies one year, $5; five copies one year, $12. Fresh names may at any time be added to Clubs, both of the WEEKLY and SEMI-WEEKLY, at Club rates.

Decay of the Teeth

Arises from various causes, but principally it may be attributed to early neglect, ill health, or the indiscriminate use of tooth powders containing mineral or deleterious acids, which give a momentary whiteness to the teeth, while they corrode the enamel. The extreme prevalence of this last cause is too well known to need comment. To this fact, indeed, is principally to be attributed the long botanical research which terminated in the greatest discovery ever given to the world for the preservation of the teeth and gums, and purifying the breath, "Fragrant Sozodont."

"IN HOC VINCES."

NEW-YORK, Feb. 14, 1862.

From a knowledge of the ingredients and their proportions entering into the composition known as "ROMAINE'S CRIMEAN BITTERS," we are enabled to speak of it in terms of high commendation. Peruvian Bark being one of its principal constituents, together with Herbs, Roots, and Extracts having decided medicinal properties, we have no hesitation in recommending it to physicians and the public generally as an invigorating TONIC, intended to stimulate the digestive organs.

From its ALTERATIVE PROPERTIES, it is calculated to prevent as well as cure, by its daily use in moderate quantities,

CONSTIPATION, FEVER AND AGUE,
AND LIGHT FORMS OF NEURALGIA AND RHEUMATISM.

It is an antidote to the effects produced by

CHANGE OF WATER AND DIET,
CORRECTS DIARRHŒA,
CURES DYSPEPSIA,
COLIC AND FLATULENCE,
SICK AND NERVOUS HEADACHES,
NAUSEA.
SEA-SICKNESS.

It is expressly adapted to females of delicate constitutions, and the infirmities of age.

This preparation is composed exclusively of vegetable materials, containing no metalic or mineral substances whatever. Its taste is aromatic, warming, and acceptable to the palate and stomach.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8, 1864, which provides that all Bonds issued under this act shall be BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption, FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually, and on all other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year. As these Bonds, by act of Congress, are their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

EXEMPT FROM MUNICIPAL OR STATE TAXATION,

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay

OVER EIGHT PER CENT. INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

The Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.

The authorized amount of this loan is Two Hundred Million Dollar. Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued until March 26, but the amount of Bonds reported sold at the United States Treasury up to May 21 was $54,564,900.

Subscriptions will be received by the TREASURER OF THE UNITED STATES at Washington, and the ASSISTANT TREASURERS at New-York, Boston and Philadelphia, and by the

THE DRAFT POSTPONED.

TWELVE HUNDRED VOLUNTEERS WANTED.

A CHANCE FOR PATRIOTS!

It having been determined that the City of New-York is deficient only TWELVE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN men, in its quota under the President's call for 200,000 men, the Draft has been postponed for a few days, in order to enable the filling of the quota, if possible, by volunteering.

The County Volunteer Committee now appeal to the patriotism of the citizens of this County to aid them in raising the Twelve Hundred and Seventeen Men needed, and thus save the County from the misfortune of a Draft.

The County Volunteer Committee will pay the following bounties until further notice:

FOR ARMY RECRUITS	$300
FOR MARINES	300
FOR NAVAL RECRUITS FOR THREE YEARS	300
FOR NAVAL RECRUITS FOR TWO YEARS	200
FOR NAVAL RECRUITS FOR ONE YEAR	100

A County premium of $10 will also be paid for bringing an army recruit to this office, in addition to the Government premium of $15, and a County premium of $20 will be paid for bringing a naval recruit.

Let the citizens of New-York make one grand and final rally to save us from the impending draft.

THE CASE OF HUTCHINGS, THE "LIGHTNING CALCULATOR."

There was published in these columns a few days since the remarkable cure of Hutchings, the "Lightning Calculator," so well known to the public during the many years he exhibited his wonderful arithmetical powers at Barnum's Museum, by the celebrated Oculist and Aurist, Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Hutchings is represented to have been at the point of death, and but for the timely interference of the Doctor, would now be resting in his grave. This is a remarkable case, and worthy of the attention of persons similarly afflicted.

We think it is but just to Doctor Von Eisenberg to call public attention to this case. There are hundreds in the community suffering from catarrh, who, like the "Lightning Calculator," if not actually praying for death, are ready to accept of anything that promises to relieve them from their distresses. To such we would say, trifle not with inexperienced men, but consult, without unnecessary delay, Dr. Von Eisenberg, who, at least, has the honesty to assure his patients whether it is within his power to make them whole or not.

EARS TO THE DEAF.

Every man, and especially every woman, believes in his or her physician. There are philosophical minds which hold to an abstract faith in Allopathy, or Homeopathy, or Hydropathy, or some other form of scientific cure; but with the world at large the belief is not in the system, but in the doctor. Especially is this true as regards aurists and oculists. The patient who has recovered his sight or his hearing is sure that the blessing could have been restored to him by no other practitioner than that particular one by whom his eyes or ears were opened. Dr. Von Eisenberg is among our best-known aurists. He has not lent us ears as a brother practitioner has eyes, and in whose skill, therefore, we believe above all others. But we hear of him from those who esteem him not merely as a surgeon, but as a benefactor. A recent case has been related to us, for the truthfulness of which we can vouch, though we can name no names. The patient was a lady who had been deaf from infancy, as a consequence of some of the ailments to which children are liable. Latterly the disease had taken an acute form, and the patient was subject to intense suffering. The deafness was rapidly becoming complete, and the general health breaking down under the physical exhaustion attendant upon constant pain. Ordinary remedies and ordinary advice were useless, and Dr. Von Eisenberg was called in. We need not repeat his diagnosis, for that would be only a list of hard names to the general reader. But he detected at sight the seat of disease, first in one portion of the organism, then in another, and with manipulation as skillful as his insight was accurate, he removed the causes, and she who, from infancy, had heard with difficulty, and latterly hardly at all, was restored first to perfect hearing and then to perfect health. Dr. Von Eisenberg's advertisement reminds us of this case, which we thus briefly relate, though not at his solicitation. Let him that hath not ears, hear.

From the Christian Times.

SIGHT RESTORED.

CONCERNING EYES AND OCULISTS.

Of the five senses, that which we call seeing is the most important and most valued. In proportion as this sense fails us, we are reduced to helplessness. If entirely destitute of sight, how slow would be our progress in knowledge, and how limited our sphere of action and usefulness. Endowed with it, the universe becomes a new creation, clothed with beauty and diversified by that infinite variety which never fails to attract the mind and heart.

For several months past this has been a practical subject to us. An inflamed condition of the eyelids communicating itself to the pupil, rendered the discharge of daily duties not only painful, but dangerous. Attributing it to the effect of a cold, we endured it through the Spring, with the hope that with the return of warm weather it would entirely disappear. But in this we were doomed to disappointment. Summer returned, but not our wonted sight. What might have been the result, either of further neglect or of incompetent treatment, we cannot say.

Stating our case to a friend, he assured us that a similar one in his own family had recently been treated with entire success by Dr. Von Eisenberg, of this City. Satisfying ourselves by more particular inquiries that the doctor is no empiric, but a scientific oculist and aurist, we concluded to seek the benefits of his treatment, which we have now reason to acknowledge is very great. Though but a few weeks under his care, the appearance of our eyes has totally changed. The pupil is now full and clear, and the lids are entirely free from inflammation. The doctor says that the optic nerve has been weakened and the retina assumed a chronic, inflammatory state, affecting more or less all the other tissues, and threatening, if neglected, to end in Amaurosis. Opthalmitis, is the term we believe, which oculists apply to eyes affected as were ours. Having obtained the much desired relief, we take great pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to the talent of Dr. Von Eisenberg, and of calling to it the attention of others who may be suffering from a similar or even worse condition of their eyes. It is said that Providence provides an antidote for every bane. It is certain that the eye is, in these times, subject to severer trials than formerly. Let us be thankful, then, that as we increase the tendencies which destroy the organ of vision, the progress of science keeps pace with these tendencies, if not in advance of them.

DIABETES.

STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.

STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS

have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.

CONSTITUTION WATER

has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS

irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing: and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING.

Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little, and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Imperfect Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION.

Which, in the unmarried female, is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and, as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually losses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

READY WEDNESDAY, 25TH INST.,

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

BY JAMES PARTON,

Author of "Life and Times of Aaron Burr;" "Life of Andrew Jackson;" "Gen. Butler at New-Orleans," etc. 2 vols., crown, 8vo. 1,330 pp., with steel portraits. Cloth extra, $5.

FRANKLIN offers, perhaps, the best subject for biography to be found in the annals of America. His career as a citizen, tradesman, philosopher, politician, statesman, diplomatist and author, presents a variety of incident, anecdote and history wholly without parallel. Yet, often and ably as his biography has been attempted, there cannot be said to have existed, heretofore, any really satisfactory account of his life and times.

The course pursued by previous biographers has been to give the fragments of autobiography, (written by Franklin for the benefit of youth,) and append to them a brief account of Franklin's public career. Mr. Parton, on the contrary, by using the autobiography as material only, is enabled to employ the great mass of interesting matter relating to Franklin's early life, which is to be found in the books, newspapers and correspondence of the period. His later life also is fully related in these volumes for the first time. Besides the stores of material collected in our historical libraries, Mr. Parton has obtained much that is absolutely new, and much more that will be new to all but those who have made the times of Franklin an object of special research.

The publishers, who have been witnesses of the remarkable industry of the author, and the enthusiasm with which he has pursued his labors, and who have the best reasons for knowing the very high appreciation which has been placed upon his previous writings by the public, confidently believe that this work will be found one of the most interesting and permanently valuable biographies ever published.

$2,000,000.

PROPOSALS FOR $2,000,000 SOLDIERS' SUBSTITUTE BOUNTY REDEMPTION BONDS.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until SATURDAY, May 28, 1864, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the whole or any part of the sum of $2,000,000 of "Soldiers' Substitute Bounty Redemption Bonds" of the County of New-York, authorized by Chapter 7, and as amended by Chapter 11 of the laws of 1864, and by an ordinance of the Board of Supervisors, approved May 4, 1864.

Said bonds will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of May and November in each year, and the principal will be redeemable in successive annual installments of $500,000 each, commencing on the first day of November, 1873.

The proposals will state the amount of bonds desired, and the price per one hundred dollars thereof; and the persons whose proposals are accepted will be required to deposit with the County Treasurer (at the Broadway Bank,) on Wednesday, the 1st day of June, 1864, the sums awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the County Treasurer for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive Bonds for equal amounts of the par value of the sums awarded to them bearing interest from June 1, 1864.

Each proposal should be sealed and indorsed, "Proposals for Soldiers' Substitute Bounty Redemption Bonds," and enclosed in a second envelope addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids, if considered necessary to protect or promote the interests of the County.

PROPOSALS.

PROPOSALS FOR $200,000
"NEW YORK COUNTY COURT-HOUSE STOCK."

Sealed proposals will be received at the Comptroller's Office until WEDNESDAY, May 25, 1864, at 2 o'clock, P. M., when the same will be publicly opened, for the whole or any part of the sum of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars of "The New-York County Court-house Stock," authorized by Chap. 242 of the Laws of 1864, and by an ordinance of the Board of Supervisors, approved by the Mayor, May 3, 1864.

The said stock is to provide additional means for the construction and completion of the new County Court-house on Chambers-street. It will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, paying semi-annually on the first day of May and November in each year, and the principal will be redeemable as follows, viz: One hundred thousand dollars on the first day of November, 1885, and one hundred thousand dollars on the first day of November, 1886.

The proposals will state the amount of stock desired, and the price per one hundred dollars thereof, and the persons whose proposals are accepted will thereupon be required to deposit with the County Treasurer, the sums awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the County Treasurer for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive certificates for equal amounts of the par value of the sums awarded to them, bearing interest from the dates of payments.

Each proposition should be sealed and indorsed "Proposals for New-York County Court-house Stock," and inclosed in a second envelope, addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids if the interest of the County require it.

PROPOSALS

PROPOSALS FOR FORAGE.

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON DEPOT, Dec. 8, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited by the undersigned for supplying the United States Quartermaster's Department, at Washington, D. C., Baltimore, M. D., Alexandria and Fort Monroe, Va., or either of these places, with Hay, Corn, Oats and Straw.

Bids will be received for the delivery of 5,000 bushels of corn or oats, and 50 tons of hay or straw, and upward.

Bidders must state at which of the above-named points they propose to make deliveries, and the rates at which they will make deliveries thereat, the quantity of each article proposed to be delivered, the time when said deliveries shall be commenced, and when to be completed.

The price must be written out in words on the bids.

Corn to be put up in good stout sacks, of about two bushels each. Oats in like sacks, of about three bushels each. The sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the Government. The hay and straw to be securely baled.

The particular kind or description of oats, corn, hay or straw, proposed to be delivered, must be stated in the proposals.

All the articles offered under the bids herein invited, will be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government Inspector before being accepted.

Contracts will be awarded from time to time to the lowest responsible bidder, as the interest of the Government may require, and payment will be made when the whole amount contracted for shall have been delivered and accepted.

The bidder will be required to accompany his proposal with a guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, that in case his bid is accepted, he or they will, within ten days thereafter, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, to deliver the forage proposed in conformity with the terms of this advertisement; and in case the said bidder should fail to enter into the contract, they to make good the difference between the offer of said bidder and the next lowest responsible bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of a United States District-Attorney, Collector of Customs, or any other officer under the United States Government, or responsible person known at this office.

All bidders will be duly notified of the acceptance or rejection of their proposals.

The full name and Post-office address of each bidder must be legibly written in the proposal.

Proposals must be addressed to Brigadier-General D. H. Rucker, Chief Depot Quartermaster, Washington, D. C., and should be plainly marked "Proposals for Forage."

Bonds, in the sum equal to the amount of the contract, signed by the contractor and both of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder or bidders upon signing the contract.

Blank forms of bids, guarantees and bonds, may be obtained upon application at this office.

FORM OF PROPOSAL.

(Town, County, and State,)————
(Date)————

I, the subscriber, do hereby propose to furnish and deliver to the United States, at the Quartermaster's Department, at ————, agreeably to the terms of your advertisement, inviting proposals for forage, dated Washington Depot, Dec. 8, 1863, the following articles, viz.:

—— bushels of Corn, in sacks, at —— per bushel of 32 pounds.
—— bushels of Oats, in sacks, at —— per bushel of 32 pounds.
—— tons of baled Hay, at —— per ton of 2,000 pounds.
—— tons of baled Straw, at —— per ton of 2,000 pounds.

Delivery to commence on or before the —— day of ——, 186–, and to be completed on or before the —— day of ——, 186–, and pledge myself to enter into a written contract with the United States, with good and approved securities, within the space of ten days after being notified that my bid has been accepted.

Your obedient servant
————

Brig.-Gen. D. H. RUCKER,
Chief Depot Quartermaster,
Washington, D. C.

GUARANTEE.

We, the undersigned, residents of ————, in the County of ————, and State of ————, hereby jointly and severally covenant with the United States, and guarantee in case the foregoing bid of ———— be accepted, that he or they will, within ten days after the acceptance of said bid, execute the contract for the same with good and sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, to furnish the forage proposed in conformity to the terms of advertisement dated Dec. 8, 1863, under which the bid was made, and, in case the said ———— shall fail to enter into a contract as aforesaid, we guarantee to make good the difference between the offer by the said ———— and the next lowest responsible bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

Witness, { Given under our hands and seals this —— day of ——, 186
[Seal.]
[Seal.]

I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the above-named guarantors are good and sufficient as sureties for the amount for which they offer to be security.

To be certified by the United States District Attorney, Collector of Customs, or any other officer under the United States Government, or responsible person known at this office.

All proposals received under this advertisement will be opened and examined at this office on Wednesday and Saturday of each week, at 12 M. Bidders are respectfully invited to be present at the opening of bids, if they desire.

D. H. RUCKER,
Brigadier-General and Quartermaster.

POST-OFFICE, NEW-YORK, May 13, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until 12 o'clock M. on MONDAY, the 23d inst., for transporting the United States Mail between this office and the several railroad depots and steamboat landings in this City.

The number of trips necessary for the performance of this service at the present time are as follows, viz.:

TO HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD DEPOT, corner of Warren and Chambers sts., nine trips daily, (Sundays excepted,) and on Sundays three trips to 30th-st.

TO NEW-HAVEN RAILROAD DEPOT, corner of 27th-st. and 4th-av., ten trips daily, (Sundays excepted,) and two trips on Sundays.

TO HARLEM RAILROAD DEPOT, corner of 26th-st. and 4th-av., two trips daily, (Sundays excepted.)

TO NEW-JERSEY TRANSPORTATION CO.'S RAILROAD DEPOT, foot of Cortlandt-st., eleven trips daily, (Sundays excepted,) and four trips on Sundays.

TO CAMDEN AND AMBOY RAILROAD CO.'S STEAMBOAT, foot of Barclay-st., three trips each day. (Sundays excepted.)

TO MARINERS' HARBOR STEAMBOAT, Pier No. 2 North River, or elsewhere, two trips daily, (Sundays excepted.)

The wagons employed in the performance of this service must be so covered as to afford ample protection to the mails, and must be such as shall in all respects be satisfactory to the Postmaster at New-York.

Proposals for this service must be made with a due regard to the number and length of trips performed, in order that should additional trips be required "a pro rata" compensation may be allowed, or should a less number prove sufficient, the "pro rata" therefore may be deducted.

All proposals for this service must be guaranteed by two responsible citizens, who shall bind themselves, that in case his or their bids are accepted, the service shall be satisfactorily performed.

The lowest responsible bidder will be accepted, and designated as "Mail Messenger," and must be prepared to commence the service at an early date after being notified of the acceptance of his bid.

All proposals for the above service must be sealed, and addressed to the Postmaster of New-York, indorsed Proposals for Mail Messenger Service.

MAY 12, 1864. ABRAM WAKEMAN, Postmaster.

ORDNANCE OFFICE—WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE REceived by this department until MONDAY, May 30, at 4 P. M., for the delivery at the New-York Arsenal of 25,000 Light Cavalry Sabres, United States regulation pattern. These Sabres are to be made in strict accordance with the standard patterns, to be seen at the New-York Arsenal. They are to be subject to the usual inspection and proof at the manufactory where made. Deliveries must be made in lots of not less than one-fifteenth (1 15th) per week of the whole number contracted for. The first delivery to be made on the 22d day of June, 1864.

Failure to make deliveries at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the number he may fail to deliver at that time.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular manufacturers of sabres, and such as are known to this department to be such, competent to execute in their own workshops the work proposed for.

Each party obtaining a contract will be required to enter into bonds, with approved sureties, for its faithful execution.

Bidders will inclose with their bids the written acknowledgments of their sureties over their own signatures.

Upon the award being made, successful bidders will be notified and furnished with forms of contract and bond.

The department reserves the right to reject any or all bids if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to BRIG.-GEN. GEORGE D. RAMSAY, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C., and will be indorsed "Proposals for Light Cavalry Sabres."

GEORGE D. RAMSAY,
Brigadier-General, Chief of Ordnance.

OFFICE OF COMMISSARY OF SUBSISTENCE,
No. 2 BRIDGE-ST.,
NEW-YORK, May 20, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS, (IN DUPLICATE,) to be indorsed "Proposals for Fresh Beef," will be received by the undersigned at this office until 4 o'clock P. M., 26th instant, for furnishing Fresh Beef for six months, commencing on the 10th of June, to troops and others in the service of the United States at Fort Schuyler, Willet's Point, and at Hart's and David's Islands, and at such other places in their vicinities as are not otherwise provided for.

The fresh beef is to be of a good marketable quality, with an equal proportion of fore and hind quarter meat, (necks, shanks and kidney tallow to be excluded,) and furnished in such quantities, at such places of delivery, as may be required from time to time by the several officers in charge, at the expense of the contractor.

No bid will be entertained that is not made by a regular butcher already established in business, who must state his present place of business, and also at what place he proposes to slaughter cattle to meet his deliveries under the contemplated contract.

The Government reserves the right to reject any bid which may seem unreasonable or disadvantageous.

Payments to be made monthly in such funds as may be furnished by the United States. Each bid must have a printed copy of this advertisement posted at its head. Written contracts to be made with adequate bonds. The names of two sufficient sureties to be given in the proposals.

Further information will be given on application.

ARMY SUPPLIES.

OFFICE OF ARMY CLOTHING AND EQUIPAGE,
No. 502 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, May 21, 1864.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12 M., on THURSDAY, the 26th day of May inst., for furnishing by contract at depot of Army Clothing and Equipage in this City,

Shelter Tents of Cotton Duck, 7 oz. and 8 oz. per yard.

Bidders will present a full and complete yard of the samples of the material of which they propose to make their tents, and state the number they wish to furnish, and how soon they can make deliveries.

A proper guarantee must accompany all bids for the faithful performance of a contract.

The United States reserves the right to reject all bids deemed objectionable.

Proposals should be indorsed "Proposals for furnishing Shelter Tents," and addressed to

Lieut.-Col. D. H. VINTON,
Deputy Quartermaster-General U. S. A.

ORDNANCE OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, May 4, 1864.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at this office until TUESDAY, the 24th day of May, 1864, for 8-inch Columbiad Shell, to be delivered in the following quantities at the undernamed Arsenals, viz.:

At the Watertown Arsenal, Massachusetts, 10,000 8-inch shell.

At the Watervliet Arsenal, New-York, 10,000 8-inch shell.

At the New-York Arsenal, Governor's Island, New-York, 15,000 8-inch shell.

At the Alleghany Arsenal, Pittsburgh, 10,000 8-inch shell.

At the St. Louis Arsenal, Missouri, 5,000 8-inch shell.

These projectiles are to be made of the kind of metal and inspected after the rules laid down in the Ordnance Manual, the tensile strength of the iron to be not less than 14,000 pounds per square inch. Drawings can be seen at any of the United States Arsenals. The projectiles are to be inspected at the foundry where cast, and are to be delivered at the Arsenals free of charge for handling and transportation. Deliveries must be made at the rate of not less than one-tenth (1-10th) of the whole amount contracted for per week. The first delivery to be made on the 15th day of June, 1864.

Failure to make deliveries at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the number he may fail to deliver at that time.

Bidders will state explicitly the Arsenal or Arsenals where they propose to deliver, and the number of projectiles they propose to deliver at each place, if for more than one.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular founders, or proprietors of works, who are known to this department to be capable of executing the work proposed for. Should any party obtaining a contract offer shells other than those cast in his own foundry, they will be rejected, and the contract rendered null and void.

Bidders will inclose with their bids the written acknowledgments of their sureties over their own signatures.

Each party obtaining a contract will be obliged to enter into bond with approved sureties for its faithful execution.

Upon the award being made, successful bidders will be notified, and furnished with forms of contract and bond.

The department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brig.-Gen. George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and indorsed "Proposals for 8-inch Columbiad Shells."

GEORGE D. RAMSAY,
Brig.-Gen., Chief of Ordnance.

ORDNANCE OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, May 4, 1864.

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED BY this Department until WEDNESDAY, May 25, at 4 P. M., for the delivery, at the following Arsenals, of HORSE EQUIPMENTS, United States Cavalry pattern, as hereinafter specified:

At the New-York Arsenal, 15,000 sets.
At the Frankford Arsenal, 2,000 sets.
At the Alleghany Arsenal, 5,000 sets.
At the St. Louis Arsenal, 3,000 sets.

These sets of Horse Equipments are to be furnished complete, except the horse-brush, curry-comb, lariat, picket-pin link, nose-bag, spurs and straps, and blanket, watering briple and sweat leathers. The curb bridle reins are to be ⅞ of an inch wide. The curb, watering bridle, sweat leathers, bits, the malleable iron, hardware, and stirrups, are to conform strictly in pattern and finish to those deposited at the Arsenals above-named. The trees are to be of the regulation pattern, assorted sizes—not less than 3½ inches between the bars on the inside of the pummel, the side bars of hard white-wood, or beech; the pummels and cantles of beech, well put together; all the irons one tenth of an inch thick, and all let into the wood; to be covered with the best slaughtered cow-hide; all other covering to be rejected. The trees are to be subject to inspection during all stages of their manufacture, and if deemed necessary, the leather to be inspected before cutting; but the final inspection will be made at the Arsenals where delivered.

Deliveries must be made in lots of not less than one-tenth per week of the whole number contracted for; the first delivery to be made on the 18th day of June, 1864.

Failure to make deliveries at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the number he may fail to deliver at that time.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular manufacturers, and such as are known to this Department to be fully competent to execute in their own shops the work proposed for.

Bidders will inclose with their bids the written acknowledgments of their sureties, over their own signatures.

Each party obtaining a contract will be obliged to enter into bonds, with approved sureties, for its faithful execution.

Upon the award being made, successful bidders will be notified, and furnished with forms of contract and bond.

The department reserves the right to reject any or all bids if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brig.-Gen. George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and will be indorsed "Proposals for Horse Equipments."

GEO. D. RAMSAY,
Brig.-Gen., Chief of Ordnance.

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 61 Franklin-st. Call, send, or write.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. Hunter's Red Drop cures venereal diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury; but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless this remedy is used. This is what he claims for it; and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known that scientific men, in every department of medical knowledge, begin to appreciate it; for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division st., New-York City, since 1831. Eight separate rooms and a private entrance. A ten cent bill will secure the Monitor of Health by return mail.

AFFLICTED RESTORED—IGNORANCE EXPOSED—FALLACIES UNMASKED.—Highly important to both sexes, married or single, in health or disease. Dr. LARMONT'S Paris London and New-York Medical Adviser and Marriage Guide, (80th edition, 400 pages, nearly 100 anatomical illustrations,) upon Debility, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Sexual Diseases, European hospital practice, the Author's unequaled Paris and London treatment, &c. All should purchase this original work of the publisher, E. WARNER, No. 1 Vesey-st., for $1, or consult the Doctor, 173 Broadway, up stairs, New York, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M. "We concur with other papers in recommending Dr. Larmont and his work."—Courrier des Etats Unis, Germandie Reform, Dispatch, Staats Zeitung, Atlas, Medical Review.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 61 Franklin-st., between Broadway and Elm-st., New-York.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR GOUT AND RHEUMATISM.

All sufferers from the above complaints, either of recent or long standing, are advised to use Blair's Gout and Rheumatic Pills. They can be relied upon as the most safe and effectual remedy ever offered to the public, and have been universally used in Europe for many years with the greatest success.

Prepared by PROUT & HARSANT, No. 229 Strand, London, England; and sold by their Agents, F. C. WELLS & CO., 115 Franklin-st., and by most Druggists.

Her Majesty's Commissioners have authorized the name and address of "Thomas Prout, No. 229 Strand, London," to be impressed upon the Government stamp affixed to each box of the genuine medicine.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED AND THOSE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, whose valuable book entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family, with full instructions for restoring the monthly sickness. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale by E. WARNER, at No. 1 Vesey-st., (Astor House,) No. 18 Ann-st. and No. 13 Court-st., Boston.

ADVICE TO MARRIED OR SINGLE LADIES, who require a safe and certain remedy for removing obstructions, from whatever cause. Can rely upon the celebrated INFALLIBLE FRENCH FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. No. 1, price $1 a box, to restore the monthly sickness in forty-eight hours, if of short standing; but obstinate cases, of long standing, may require No. 2, which are four degrees stronger than No. 1, and can never fail, are safe and healthy, price $5 a box. Sold at No. 127½ Liberty-st., or sent by mail, with full instructions, by addressing Box No. 2,359 N. Y. Post-office.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.—Containing nearly 300 pages, and 150 fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the sexual organs, in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on self-abuse, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by the report of cases treated. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain doubts of their physical condition. Sent, free of postage, to any address on receipt of 25 cents, in specie or postage-stamps. Address Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden-lane, Albany, N. Y.

DR. POWERS' PERIODICAL DROPS are designed for both married and single ladies, and are the very best thing known for the purpose, as they will bring on the monthly sickness in case of obstruction from any cause, and after all other remedies of the kind have been tried in vain. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations! Purchase directly of Dr. POWERS, 61 Franklin-st. N. Y.

LEGAL NOTICES.

JAMES CHEEVER, WM. T. HART, TRUSTEES, et al. against RUTLAND AND BURLINGTON RAILROAD COMPANY, EDWIN A. BIRCHARD, JOHN W. STEWART, Trustees, et al.—In Chancery: Rutland County, March Term, 1864.—Whereas, The said John W. Stewart and Edwin A. Birchard, Trustees of the Second Mortgage (so called) of the Rutland and Burlington Railroad, have preferred their several petitions to this court, setting forth, among other things, that they, the said Birchard and Stewart, are Trustees aforesaid, and are operating and running said railroad, and that the said Stewart is desirous of retiring from said trust, and would have resigned long ago, but for the injunction granted by this court in the aforesaid entitled cause, prohibiting any change in the said Trustees under said second deed of mortgage or trust; and also setting forth, that the said Stewart desires to be discharged from said trust, and to have his successor appointed agreeably to the provisions of said deed in that behalf. And further setting forth, that the said Birchard has signified his willingness to accept the resignation of said Stewart, but that he, the said Birchard, is advised by legal counsel that this only can be done by permission of this Court, inasmuch as the Orators have filed their bill in this Court and obtained an injunction forbidding such change, and further setting forth that he the said Birchard, so far as he could legally do, consistent with such injunction, has signified his intention to appoint John B. Page, of Rutland, as successor of said Stewart in said trust, and that said Page is a fit and proper person to be trustee under said deed; and PRAYING, that the said Stewart may be permitted to retire from said trust and resign the same, and that the said Birchard be permitted to appoint some suitable person in his stead, and that he the said Stewart be permitted to convey all his title and interest in said trust property to said Birchard and such other person as may be appointed the successor of him the said Stewart, and that the injunction granted in the aforesaid cause be modified accordingly; and also praying that the said Stewart be discharged from said trust and that the petitioner Birchard be permitted to appoint said John B. Page Trustee under said deed of trust in the place and stead of said Stewart, and that said Page may be a party to said Bill of Complaint of the Orators; and that said Court confirm the appointment of said Page as such Trustee as per petitions on file.

And now on this 16th day of May A. D. 1864, the said several petitions coming on to be heard, it is ORDERED that further proceedings thereon stand over until the 4th day of June A. D. 1864, and that notice be given thereof to all persons interested, by publication of this order in the Rutland Daily Herald, Boston Daily Journal and NEW-YORK DAILY TIMES, to appear before this court, at the Court-house in Rutland, in the County of Rutland, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon on said day, to show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petitions should not be granted. The said publications to be made on three several days, the last of which is to be at least six days before the said 4th day of June next.

Dated at Rutland, the 16th day of May, A. D. 1864.

L. C. KELLOGG, Chancellor.

L. UNDERWOOD, PROUT & DUNTON, } Solicitors.

PARTITION SALE.—ON THE 26TH DAY OF May, 1864, at 12 o'clock at noon, on the premises, In pursuance of a judgment of the Supreme Court of the State of New-York, will be sold by or under the direction of the undersigned Referee, a mill, with dam and pond, together with dwelling-houses and about fifteen acres of land, (property of the late Joseph Lister, deceased,) situated on the Pocantico River, immortalized through Washington Irving's "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," and within three-fourths of a mile of Hudson River Railroad depot at Tarrytown, Westchester County, N. Y. Capacity of said mill about twenty-five horse power, can be increased to thirty-five. The property is admirably situated for manufacturing purposes, paper mill, grist mill, brewery, or other business requiring abundant water power. Also, right to use of a wharf on Hudson River, appurtenant to said mill. Terms of sale—Ten per cent. will be required on the day of sale; forty per cent. in thirty days, when the deed will be delivered; at the option of the purchaser, one-half of the purchase money may remain on mortgage for five years.

APRIL 23, 1864. ROBERT COCHRAN, Referee.

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

GEO. A. PRINCE & CO.'S

MELODEONS AND SCHOOL ORGANS.

The depot for the sale of the above celebrated instruments has been removed from No. 87 Fulton-st., to No. 543 Broadway, (Wm. Hall & Son's music store,) where a large stock of samples and packed instruments may at all times be found.

Dealers will be supplied on receipt of orders, with draft, for the amount of bill required.

Direct all communications to the undersigned, who is sole agent for this City.

CHARLES E. BACON.

STEINWAY & SONS'

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms, Nos. 71 and 73 East 14th-st., between Union-square and Irving-place, New-York.

HAINES BROTHERS,

PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTURERS.
Warerooms No. 758 Broadway.
PIANOS TO LET AND FOR SALE
ON INSTALLMENTS.

MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS, FOR FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS—Recognized by the musical profession as greatly superior to Harmoniums, Melodeons and all other small organs. [See our illustrated catalogue for explicit testimony to their superiority, from a majority of the most eminent organists in America.] Prices, $85 to $600 each.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—The great reputation which our Cabinet Organs have obtained, and the extensive demand for them, have induced dealers to advertise, in some cases, quite different instruments as Cabinet Organs, and in others to represent to purchasers that Harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of our Cabinet Organs, which have given them their high reputation, are the result not merely of the superiority of their workmanship, but also, in large measure, of essential differences in construction, which, being patented, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone and unrivaled capacity for expression. Warerooms in New-York, No. 7 Mercer-st.

MASON BROTHERS.

100 NEW AND SECOND-HAND PIANOS, melodeons, Alexandre and cabinet organs to let, and rent allowed if purchased. Monthly payments received for the same. Second-hand pianos at great bargains for cash; price from $60 to $200. New seven-octave pianos, at $225, $250, $275, $300, and up to $700. One seven-octave second-hand grand piano, price $700 new, will be sold for $300, or rented for $10 per month. 10,000 sheets of music, a little soiled, at 1½ cents per page. Cash paid for second-hand pianos. HORACE WATERS, No. 481 Broadway.

PIANO-FORTES OF EVERY VARIETY OF style and pattern, warranted of the best material and workmanship, and unsurpassed in strength and delicacy of tone, or elasticity of touch. Apply at manufactory of JAS. VAN RIPER, No. 178 Wooster-st., between Houston and Bleecker sts.

PRINCE & CO.'S IMPROVED PATENT MELODEONS AND ORGANS.—33,000 now in use. Price-list sent free on application.

GEO. A. PRINCE & CO., No. 87 Fulton-st., N. Y.

PIRSSON'S PIANO-FORTES.—JAS. PIRSSON respectfully informs the public that he has reëstablished himself in the piano-forte business and invites attention to a fine stock of pianos at his warerooms, No. 478 Broadway, near Broome-st.

ORGAN FOR SALE.—A GOOD SECOND-HAND organ of twelve stops; two octaves of pedals, rebuilt and repaired by FRANCIS X. ENGELFRIED, No. 2 White-st., New-York.

GEN. BUTLER'S ARMY.

pulsed, and the firing of musketry thenceforth ceases. The artillery, however, mainly from the gunboats, continues to send an occasional shell into the woods; but this desultory fire finally ends. The expectant, listening encampment are glad the trouble is over, and again seek sleep, while deep silence, seemingly more profound after the tremendous noise, resumes its sway. A telegram from Gen. GILLMORE informs the Commanding-General that the enemy in force attempted to drive in our picket line from their rifle-pits, but was repulsed. Almost simultaneously a dispatch comes from Gen. HINCKS, several miles down the James River, at Fort Powhatan, saying that the rebels had assaulted his position in the afternoon, but were driven off. This last movement developes an intention on the part of the enemy to disturb our communications if possible, but designs of that character must and will be thwarted.

Riding by one of the field hospitals, yesterday afternoon, I came upon a group of soldiers who were burying by the roadside the body of one of their comrades, (HENRY A. RICKER, Co. B, Eighth Maine Regiment,) who had just died of wounds received in battle the day before. Coffined in his blanket, the fellow-soldier was gently placed in his shallow grave, while the Chaplain of the regiment offered a brief and feeling prayer, bringing home to each of the rough, strong men who listened, in simple words, the lesson of the event. It is not often that the battle-field affords opportunity for any burial service, but I am certain that no elaborately gotten-up obsequies, in sacred fane, with funereal pomp, could have been half so touching and impressive as this rude committal of a patriot to the bosom of his mother earth, far from his home and his friends. There were a few other graves near RICKER's, and I copied the names from the head-boards, as follows: First Sergt. Wm. Mock, Co. K, Fifty-fifth Pennsylvania; Isaac A. Hooper, Co. G, Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania; Lieut. Fox, Co. B, Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania; Sergt. Joseph R. Ackers, Co. C, Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania; Sergt. Guest, Co. F, Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania.

The following report of the killed and wounded of the Eighteenth Army Corps since the landing at Bermuda Hundred, 6th of May, to date, May 20, including the casualties of the 16th inst., is made up from the official statement of Dr. SUCKLEY, Medical Director of the Eighteenth Corps. During the engagements a moderate number of rebel wounded were captured. They were attended to fully as well as were our own men, and everything that could be dictated by humanity or the courtesy of war was done for them:

	Total Number of Wounded.	Died of Their Wounds Almost Immediately After Reception.
Engagements of May 6 and May 7, 1864: Heckman's Brigade, Second Division, First Division, Eighteenth Army Corps..	82	7
Engagements and Skirmishing of 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th of May: First and Second Divisions....	172	19
Engagements and Skirmishing on 13th and 14th of May: First and Second Divisions.........	122	5
Skirmishing on the 15th of May, Battle of May 16, 1864. First and Second Divisions.........	568	6
Total..............................	944	37

These figures do not include those of our men who were left wounded or dead in the fight of the 16th in the hands of the enemy. There must have been quite a number of such of HECKMAN's Brigade; but until the reports of regimental Commanders are drawn up, there will be no data upon which to base an estimate.

The Wounded—The Fight of Friday.

FORTRESS MONROE, Saturday, May 21.

Three hundred wounded men were sent from the McClellan Hospital, to-day, to Philadelphia.

The weather is as yet very favorable for the patients in hospital, and most of them are doing well.

Gen. WISTAR has left for home sick.

Gen. DENNIS is at the Chesapeake Hospital, sick.

Yesterday noon the pickets on our left and near the Point of Rocks on the Appomattox, were driven in by the rebels and quite an engagement soon followed. As soon as the pickets reached our reserve force, two of our batteries opened on the enemy with a deadly fire, and they were so taken by surprise that they lost heavily in both killed and wounded.

The rebel Gen. WALKER is wounded and a prisoner, with many of his men.

The enemy got the worst of the skirmish and retired.

Picket skirmishing is going on much of the time along our lines.

There is heavy skirmishing this morning. Particulars are not yet received.

Attack on Fort Powhatan—Repulse of the Rebels.

BALTIMORE, Monday, May 23.

A letter from Fortress Monroe, of the 21st, states that the rebel cavalry had attacked Fort Powhatan, on the James River, making three charges, which were all repulsed, with a heavy rebel loss and disorganization, and but slight loss on our side.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Arguelle's Case.

The official correspondence in the case of the absconding Cuban official, Don JOSE AUGUSTIN ARGUELLES, has been made public in connection with the indictment found against Marshal MURRAY for aiding in ARGUELLE's abduction. The first note of the batch is from the United States Vice-Consul at Havana, intimating that a cargo of negro slaves had been brought to Havana for sale, having been landed secretly from a steamship on some other part of the coast. In the transaction several wealthy persons were implicated. This note is dated Nov. 20, 1863. The next letter is from Mr. SEWARD, informing Lord LYONS of the contents of the Consul's note. This Lord LYONS acknowledges, and promises to inform his Government of the facts. On receiving his Government's reply, Lord LYONS again writes (Feb. 4, 1864,) conveying the thanks of Lord RUSSELL, and urging representations from the United States Government to that of Spain. Following these preliminary notes is a memoradum of the State Department, showing how faithfully the Captain-General of Cuba has executed the treaty agreements with the United States and England for the suppression of the slave trade. Two subsequent notes from Lord LYONS and Mr. SEWARD, respectively show that the Ministers of the two countries at Madrid were instructed to make representations to the Queen's Government as to the slave-trading practices at Cuba; and these instructions were promptly fulfilled. The United States Vice-Consul at Havanna, again writes to the State Department giving fuller particulars of the slaver described in his first note, and these particulars were handed to Lord LYONS. This was in the beginning of March last. On the 27th of March the Vice-Consul again writes to say, that he had an interview with the Captain-General of the island, who wished to ascertain if the United States authorities can return to this island the person of an officer of the Spanish army named Don JOSE AUGUSTIN ARGUELLES, who was believed to be in New-York."

The letter continues:

"This officer was, in November last, the Lieutenant-Governor of the District of Colon, in this island, and effected the capture of the large expedition of African negroes reported to the department on the 30th of November last—dispatch No. 107. The Government was highly pleased with his zeal, and paid him $15,000 for his share of the prize-money usually allowed to the captors of such expeditions. The officer subsequently obtained a leave of absence of twenty days, upon his representation that the object of his journey to New-York was to purchase the Spanish journal there published, called La Cronica. He has not returned, and since his departure it has been discovered that he and other officers of the district of Colon retained and sold into slavery one hundred and forty-one negroes captured by them. Some of those negroes were sold at $700, and others at $750 each.

The Superior Court of the island, having exclusive jurisdiction over such causes, has taken cognizance of this case, and requires the presentation of Don JOSE AUGUSTIN ARGUELLES before it to insure the prompt liberation of these 141 victims. The Captain-General gave me to understand that, without ARGUELLES' presence, it would be very difficult, and at all events it would require a long time to attain that humane object. His Excellency pronounced ARGUELLES to be a scoundrel worse than thief or highwayman, inasmuch as he took advantage of his position as the local authority to commit that outrage with little risk to himself.

I told the Captain-General that, in the absence of an extradition treaty between the two Governments, or of any law, public or municical, authorizing the reddition, our Government could not grant the request, but promised to lay the matter, in this confidential way, before you, which he desired me to do the earliest opportunity.

The Spanish Minister at Washington now stepped in, and on the 5th of April expressed, in a confidential note, the wishes of the Captain-General of Cuba as to the disposition of ARGUELLES. This appeal of the Captain-General was as follows:

MR F. W. SEWARD TO MR. SAVAGE.

[No. 79.]

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON,
April 14, 1864.

Thomas Savage, Esq., Vice-Consul-General of the United States, Havana:

SIR—Your dispatch No. 136 has been received, in which you call attention to the case of DON JOSE AUGUSTIN ARGUELLES. I am instructed to inform you that, if the Captain-General will send to New-York a suitable officer, steps will, if possible, be taken to place in his charge the above-named individual, for the purpose indicated in your dispatch.

You will immediately communicate the purport of this instruction in confidence to the Captain-General.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,
F. W. SEWARD, Assistant Secretary.

Mr. Secretary SEWARD wrote to the Spanish Minister in Washington thus, on the 16th of April:

"In acknowledging the receipt of your confidential communication of the 5th instant, I have the honor to inform you that the Consul-General of the United States at Havana has been instructed to state to His Excellency the Captain-General of Cuba, that, if suitable officer be sent to New-York, such steps as may be proper will be taken to place in his charge, for the purpose indicated in your note, the Spanish officer, Don JOSE AUGUSTIN ARGUELLES."

And the whole winds up with a letter from the Vice-Consul at Havana to the State Department, in which he says:

I also received yesterday the dispatch No. 78, signed by F. W. SEWARD, Assistant Secretary, and immediately communicated the purport thereof, in confidence, to the Captain-General. He had likewise a dispatch from the Spanish Minister, at Washington, advising him of the interview he had had with you on the subject of the rendition of the Spanish officer JOSE AUGUSTIN ARGUELLES. His Excellency was very much pleased, and very warmly expressed his thanks to me for the promptness with which I had attended to his request in this matter. He red me the Spanish Minister's letter, and said that he would send a proper officer to perform the service, who will probably proceed to New-York, by the steamer Columbia, on Monday next, and on arrival immediately repair to Washington and place himself under the direction of the Spanish Minister.

In this connection, I deem it proper to make known to you that the Captain-General is under the impression that ARGUELLES will be surrendered as accused of crime, to be subjected to trial here, in which case, from what I can learn, he will certainly be convicted and sentenced to the chain gang, which will be the fate of the curate of Colon and two or three others, who were accomplices, aiders and abettors of ARGUELLES in the nefarious business. I did not say anything to His Excellency to the contrary, not being authorized to do so."

Banquet to the Seventy-ninth Highlanders.

The New-York Caledonian Club gave a banquet last evening, at the City Assembly Rooms, to the gallant Seventy-ninth Highlanders. GEORGE MITCHELL, Esq., presided. On his right sat Lieut.-Col. MOORE, and on his left, Brig.-Gen. EWEN, Col. MORRISON was unable to be present on account of the wound in his right arm, received in the battle at Spotsylvania Court-House. The Hon. SIMON CAMERON, who was set down in the programme for a reply to the second toast, "The President of the United States," sent a letter, which was read by the Chairman, regretting and explaining his inability to be present. The returned veterans were welcomed home by HENRY G. THOMSON, Esq., in a warm and eloquent speech, in which he recounted the services rendered to the cause of their adopted country by "these brave men and good citizens" on so many hard-fought battle-fields from Bull Run to the recent fight at Spottsylvania Court-House. Alderman HARDY presented a beautiful banner to the regiment on behalf the Common Council, and, in the absence of Col. MORRISON, Lieut.-Col. MOORE a short speech, in which he stated the interesting facts that the Seventy-ninth was the first regiment to plant the Union flag again on the soil of South Carolina, and that in all its battles the regiment had never lost a flag.

All the speeches were characterized by the warmest patriotism; and the hearty welcome extended to the Seventy-ninth showed that our Republic is not inclined to be ungrateful to its brave sons, who have gone forth to do battle for its existence.

Festival of the New-York Saengerbund.

The Germans of this City celebrated, yesterday, in Jones' Woods, one of those pleasant national festivals which we thank them for transplanting into their adopted country. That delightful grove, beautiful in the freshness of its early verdure, was alive with thousands of people, mostly from among the working classes, drawn there, as one of their orators justly remarked, "not merely to drink 'lager' and have a grand spree, but to enjoy the highest music of the best composers." Not that "lager" was wanting—by no means! It was drank in huge quantities, out of big horns and glasses; but that the humanizing influence of the music of MOZART, and other great masters, was deeply felt and appreciated, was evinced by the quiet order and genial humor of the whole assembly. The festival was, in every point of view, pleasant and a success.

Arrival of the First Massachusetts Regiment.

The First Massachusetts Regiment, Col. MCLAUGHLIN, arrived last evening en route home, their term of three years' service having expired. They number 463 men, rank and file. The regiment was quartered last night in the Park Barracks, where the privates were provided with refreshments by the New-England Soldiers' Relief Association. The officers partook of a collation at the Astor House, by invitation of Mr. STETSON. The command will leave for Boston this afternoon by the Fall River boat. The Sons of New-England will assemble at the Astor House at 3 P. M., to escort the regiment to Pier No. 3, North River. A full attendance is expected. The regiment has participated in all the recent battles with Gen. GRANT's army, in which their loss has been 72 men killed, wounded and missing. The officers state that the army generally is enthusiastically confident in Gen. GRANT, and move anywhere at his bidding, with the sure expectation of victory.

WILLCOX & GIBBS' SEWING MACHINE.—The design (which, curiously enough, forms a perfect letter G, the initial of one of the inventors, GIBBS,) being well adapted to the requirements of a sewing machine, as it gives the greatest possible space under the arm, and the works, being all above the stand, are, therefore, easily oiled and cleaned. Owing to the peculiar construction of the working parts, the machine is rendered perfectly noiseless.—Scientific American, Nov. 28, 1863.

No. 23 FORSYTH-ST., NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most skeptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing, or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience; yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be peurile; but as a measure of precaution, to induce all to call on you at once, without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

In The Year 1845

MR. MATHEWS first prepared the VENETIAN HAIR DYE. Since that time it has been used by thousands, and in no instance has it failed to give entire satisfaction.

The VENETIAN DYE is the cheapest in the world. Its price is only Fifty Cents, and each bottle contains double the quantity of dye in those usually sold for $1.

The VENETIAN DYE is warranted not to injure the hair or the scalp in the slightest degree.

The VENETIAN DYE works with rapidity and certainty, the hair requiring no preparation whatever.

The VENETIAN DYE produces any shade that may be desired—one that will not fade, crock or wash out—one that is as permanent as the hair itself. For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

RECENT TESTIMONIALS.

CATARRH CURED.

FROM REV. FRED. S. JEWELL,
PROFESSOR OF THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, ALBANY, N. Y.

This may certify that I have been, since 1844, subject to violent periodical attacks of catarrh, marked by a highly inflamed condition of the lining membrane of the cavities of the head, producing a most distressing species of headache, for days at a time, wholly incapacitating me from business, and, during the paroxysms, confining me to the bed. In some instances the inflammation has extended to the teeth, occasioning toothache; to the throat, producing hoarseness and partial loss of voice; and twice it has so affected the left eye as to confine me for a month or more to a darkened room. These attacks have been accompanied by strong febrile symptoms; by stoppages of the head, and in the first stages by watery discharges from the nose, and subsequently becoming acrid and yellow, and, toward the close of the attack, becoming bloody and purulent. I have tried medicines of almost every kind; external applications to the head, such as camphor, ginger, hot vinegar, snuffs of some half dozen kinds, and other catarrhal preparations, together with internal remedies, such as alteratives, cathartics and emetics. These have produced no change in the occurrence or character of the disease, and, in most cases with little or no temporary relief. I had come, at length, to believe the disease to be practically beyond either cure or material alleviation.

Under these circumstances, I was led, some five months ago, to make a trial of Dr. Lighthill's treatment. His method at once approved itself to my judgment as simple, philosophical, and likely to be effective. Notwithstanding the disadvantages under which he labored in dealing with a disease of such long standing, aggravated by nervous debility and dyspepsia, and constantly induced by the accidents of my professional labor, I found the treatment reaching the disease as it had never been reached before, and producing such a modification and alleviation of its character as I had supposed impossible. I chronicle the result thus:

Although I have been situated several times so that I should formerly have believed a severe attack of my catarrh inevitable, I have escaped thus far; the symptoms of threatened attack have been very light, and have yielded to the remedies employed by Dr. Lighthill, without the need of recourse to the old hot fermentations, or emetics, and the discharges from the head have resumed the original and natural condition. That I have been able to obtain so material a relief is to me a cause of gratitude. In that alone I am repaid for whatever the treatment may have cost me.

I make this statement unsolicited, as a means of acknowledging my obligations to Dr. Lighthill's method of treating catarrh, and with a view to aid any who may have suffered from that disease in forming a just opinion of its merits, and its probable utility in their own case.

FREDERICK S. JEWELL.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 14, 1864.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DEAFNESS.

From Rev. Joseph M. Clarke, Rector of St. James' Church.

SYRACUSE, Feb. 20, 1864.

I have been deaf in one ear ever since I was in College, some twenty years ago. By the skill of Dr. Lighthill, its hearing was entirely restored, so that now I hear alike with both ears, and I find that I can use my voice with much more ease and comfort than before.

JOSEPH M. CLARKE.

From the Rev. John Nott, D. D., Professor in Union College, Schenectady.

Since I first publicly acknowledged the great benefits which I received from the skillful treatment of Dr. Lighthill, in regard to my hearing, letters of inquiry have incessantly poured upon me from all parts of the country, from parties desiring to learn the particulars of my case, and I am indeed surprised at the number of individuals who are affected similar to the manner in which I have been, and, therefore, feel it more and more a sacred duty which I owe to these sufferers, to direct them to a proper and reliable source to obtain the benefit they so much covet, and which so many afflicted ones have hitherto sought in vain, just as I had done previous to applying to Dr. Lighthill.

I had from infancy one very deaf ear, which always discharged more or less offensive matter, and was the source of the greatest annoyance and discomfort to me. Last year the other ear also became diseased, and both ears discharged a yellow matter, very profuse and highly offensive. My hearing became very much impaired, and the discharge produced the greatest debility of body and depression of spirits. I applied to my family physician and other practitioners, without deriving any benefit, and almost despaired of being restored to health, when, providentially, I applied to Dr. Lighthill. Under his treatment my ears began to improve at once, and continued to do so until, in a comparatively short time, both ears were healed, the discharge removed, and my hearing restored. At first I feared the cure would not be permanent, or that the stoppage of a discharge of so long standing might prove detrimental to my general health—a fear which I find a great many entertain in regard to the removal of discharge from the ear. My experience, however, has proved conclusively that my apprehensions were entirely groundless in both respects, for both ears are as well, and my hearing is as good at present, as the day I left off treatment, and the stoppage of discharge, instead of proving detrimental to my health, has given the highest elasticity and vigor to my body, and a flow of spirits not experienced for a long time previous.

I wish that the above might serve as a general answer to the interested, but should one or the other desire to apply to me personally, or by letter, I will cheerfully satisfy reasonable demands upon my time.

I avail myself of this opportunity of again publicly expressing my deeply-felt gratitude to Dr. Lighthill, whom I esteem as a gentleman and a man of science, in whom the highest confidence may be placed. JOHN NOTT.

References to parties of the highest respectability residing in the City, who have been cured of Deafness, Catarrh, &c., may be had on application.

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDIES KNOWN AS
HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
a positive and Specific Remedy for Diseases of the BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This medicine increases the power of digestion and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the water or calcerous depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

H

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For weaknesses arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse, attended with the following symptoms:

Indisposition to Exertion,
Loss of Memory,
Weak Nerves,
Horror of Disease,
Dimness of Vision,
Hot Hands,
Dryness of the Skin,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System.
Loss of Power,
Difficulty of Breathing,
Trembling,
Wakefulness,
Pain in the Back,
Flushing of the Body,
Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance,

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow
IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS.
In one of which the patient may expire. Who can say they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"
INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION!
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.
THE CONSTITUTION ONCE AFFECTED BY ORGANIC WEKNESS
requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

E

FEMALES! FEMALES! FEMALES!
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.
In many affections peculiar to Females, the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularities, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.
See symptoms above.
NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

L

Take no Balsam, Mercury or Unpleasant Medicines, unpleasant and Dangerous Diseases.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES SECRET DISEASES
in all their stages, at little Expense; little or no change of Diet; no Inconvenience, AND NO EXPOSURE.
It causes frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling POISONOUS, DISEASED AND WORN-OUT MATTER.
Thousands upon thousands who have been the VICTIMS OF QUACKS,
and who have paid HEAVY FEES to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and,
PERHAPS, AFTER MARRIAGE.

M

USE HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For all affections and diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing
IN MALE OR FEMALE,
From whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic.
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,
AND IT IS CERTAIN
TO HAVE THE
DESIRED EFFECT
IN ALL DISEASES
FOR WHICH
IT IS RECOMMENDED.

B

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
SYPHILIS.
This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe and other mucus surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of sarsaparilla.

O

HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH,
an excellent lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection in diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.
